Primaries on Tuesday Range from 3-Way Deomcratic Race For Position on Council to Preferential Vote for President

A primary contest among Borough Democrats, a skirmishing for the two Democratic county committee seats in the Borough's District Five — and presidential primaries will occupy serious voters in next Tuesday's New Jersey primary election. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m. in the usual November polling places.

In the Borough, three Democrats are running for the two available places on the November ballot's three-year Council positions. There is a two-year Council seat up this year, too, but no one is fighting Irv Urken for the Democratic designation.

The three Democrats are David Male, Martin Lombardo and Marvin Trotman. As you read down the voting sheet, that's the way their names go. But Mr. Male doesn't have the "Regular Democratic Organization" title with his name, so the Regular Democratic Organization, in an ad in this week's TOWN TOPICS, is urging voters to vote "from the bottom."

Of the three, only Mr. Lombardo, running for his third term on Council, has the endorsement of the Princeton Community Democratic Organization. But if neither Mr. Trotman nor Mr. Male has that endorsement, how come Mr. Trotman is labeled as "Regular" when Mr. Male is not?

Borough Democrats say it's because that's the way Jan Schneier, Borough municipal chairman for the Democrats, wanted it. Mr. Male says she told him he couldn't have the "Regular Democratic" label on the ballot out gave him no reason.

Mr. Male isn't the only one without the label. John Huntoon and Suzanne Huntoon, running against Ms. Schneier and her husband, Joseph Stonaker, for committeeman and committeewoman in the fifth district, don't have it either. Curiously, both Ms. Schneier and Mr. Stonaker do.

Mr. Huntoon says that when he filed the certificate for ballot position with the county clerk, he applied for the Regular Democratic Oragnization label. When the sample ballot appeared without the RDO lines over the Huntoon's names, William Falacy, county clerk, wrote Mr. Huntoon to explain that the municipal chairman – in the Borough's case, Jan Schneier -- had the right to manage the slate.

But Mr. Huntoon questions the existence of a "slate". All the petitions that were filed, he says, were individual ones. He also says that Ms. Schneier didn't go through the municipal committee nor the P.C.D.O. to get a consensus on removing the RDO labels.

"You leave an aura of arbitrariness when you don't go through procedures," Mr. Huntoon said. "But I realize she faced a very, very difficult decision – it's hard to act against one's own self-interest."

Mr. Huntoon said both he and Ms. Schneier are on the state's Citizen Committee for Election Law Reform. If recommendations of this committee were now law, he said, Ms. Schneier could not have taken the action she did.

Ms. Schneier and Mr. Stonaker have been out of town and were not available for comment.

In the Council contest, Mr. Trotman and Mr. Lombardo are running as a team, emphasizing their experience as opposed to Mr. Male's youth. David Male is the son of former Borough mayor Raymond F. Male. He graduated from Princeton High School in 1974. He is citing his October-to-May year as an interne in Borough Hall and saying that as someone who runs his own business -- he has a car-washing and waxing business -- he has time to study issues.

There is no contest in the Republican party in the Borough, nor are there contests in either party in the Township.

VIELAND WINS

In Tenure Case. Constance Vieland, once the head of Staff Services for Princeton's schools, has won the tenure appeal she made to the state's Commissioner of Education.

There is no word so far on the appeal she filed this spring with the Commissioner to reverse the decision of Princeton's school board to abolish the office of Staff Services.

Dr. Vieland was denied tenure last spring by the school board in her job as director of Staff Services, an action which was tantamount to dismissing her from the job. She appealed to the state, claiming that she already had tenure in a "category of responsibility;" that is, as a supervisor. She holds state certification as a supervisor.

In a letter last week, she was informed that the state's hearing examiner, Lawrence Anderson, will recommend to Commissioner Fred Burke that he require the Princeton board of education to restore her to a tenured position as supervisor, or offer her seniority rights to any other positions within the general category of supervisor.

Began Work in 1966. Dr. Vieland was hired in 1966 as a psycholngist and given tenure in 1969. She has had several titles. A critical title change, she has maintained, was the one from "Co-ordinator of Staff Development Programs" to "Director of Staff Services."

Last year, when she was denied tenure, she was in the second year of the latter title but she contends the job itself had not changed from what it was when she was called "Co-ordinator". She has been serving this year as a psychologist in the Middle School.

Because the school board is abolishing the Staff Services office, it will be impossible to re-instate Dr. Vieland in her former job unless the office itself is re-established.

Dr. Vieland questions, in her other appeal to the Commissioner, whether the board of education acted legally in abolishing Staff Services. She claims the board did not discuss who would do the work of Staff Services or indeed whether it would be done at all. She also questions whether a job could be abolished while a case -- her tenure case -- was still being heard.

Commenting on her case this week, Dr. Vieland remarked that tenure is "mythology."

"WE LOVE YOU, HOWARD!" A resolution bristling with "whereases" is presented by Township Mayor Jay Bleiman to Inner Loop bus driver Howard Sjursen commending him for "unfailing good humor and store of jokes in the face of vacant or overflowing buses, abandoned schoolbooks and saxophones, raffle tickets for turkeys and festoons of Christmas chains, snowflakes and Valentines." On what everybody thought would be the Loop's last day Friday, Mr. Sjursen was deluged with gifts from passengers: hand-woven potholders from the youngest, boxes of cookies from the oldest, mysterious boxes unwrapped later in the Sjursen home.

Loop Buses Will Run, If Borough and Township Agree On Plan To Share Merchants' Contributions

Both Borough and Township were delighted to learn last Thursday night that Mercer Metro, the county's bus company, will start running Princeton's two loop buses in August at no cost to Princeton.

Also, the two municipalities have agreed to let both loops run through the end of this week, although last Friday was to have been the final day.

But whether the Township is still speaking to the Borough by the end of the week over allocation of bus-operation money contributed by local merchants, seemed in doubt after an emergency meeting of Township Committee late Tuesday afternoon to talk about extending the Inner Loop through the summer.

"I am unequivocally opposed to extending buses through the summer if the merchants' contribution goes solely to the Borough," Township mayor Jay Bleiman declared at the outset of Tuesday's meeting.

Borough merchants have conributed almost $2,000 toward the loop bus operation, largely through the canvassing efforts of Borough Council member Murray Medvin. Originally, money was to tide the Borough over until the end of the year if Mercer's expected buses weren't delivered in time. The offer is now being altered to pay for summer operation of the Inner Loop only.

Mr. Medvin, who attended Tuesday's Committee meeting, said a check had already been made out in the Borough's name and was awaiting a formal presentation.

Under discussion by Committee was a resolution authorizing the Inner Loop through the summer. Borough Council will have to pass a similar resolution to assure continuance of the joint bus line. Council is scheduled to act, one way or another, at its public agenda session this Thursday at 8 p.m. in Borough Hall. It is also expected to act as did the Township, to legalize this week's additional few days of travel.

"It's the Principle." The cost of summer operation is $4,400 per municipality, said Township Committee member Elizabeth Hutter. Under the 50-50 sharing of bus costs by Borough and Township, the Township would only get $1,000 of merchant money toward its costs -- as would the Borough – and Mayor Bleiman acknowledged that the sum is "miniscule." It's the principle, he maintained.

As the late afternoon meeting moved into the dinner hour, mayor Bleiman held out, adamant: no division of merchants' ontribution, no buses.

"If this is a community system, it's a community system," he said. "I simply won't accept the notion that only Princetonians who live in the Borough will benefit."

His colleague, Josie Hall agreed.

"I can't see the Township taxpayers subsidizing the loop at a different rate from the Borough taxpayer," she said.

Mr. Medvin suggested committee pass its resolution, then talk to the merchants to see whether they'd be willing to make their contributions a joint one to both municipalities

"Frankly, you're all a little late," Mr. Medvin told Committee, "It took one month's effort to get that money. Why didn't the Township get off its duff and get its own contributions? I can hear Council say you're trying to ride along on our coat-tails."

"I didn't know what you were doing," Mayor Bleiman retorted. "There was no presentation to the Transporation Commission or to Committee. It blows my mind that you don't understand my annoyance. I'm happy to try and get contributions, and if I do, it will go into the common pot. I want that same recognition from Borough Council."

Mr. Medvin explained that he couldn't say whether Council would agree. He said Council members had rejected some of his own proposals, then presented the same proposals as their own, "so don't ask me about Council." Mr. Medvin, a Democrat, has been a minority of one on the six-Democrat Council.

Don't go to Council with the threat the buses won't run – that's just like a red flag." Approach Council like good salesmen saying 'let's negotiate, we'll seek contributions, too, and maybe we can come out with a working agreement.' But the way you're talking now, you'll end up with hard feelings and no bus."

Margaret Broadwater proposed changing the resolution and after minor revisions, her proposal was unanimously adopted. Buses will run, providing the Township shall, beforehand, have reached with the Borough a satisfactory agreement on the allocation of any money received by either town as a bus contribution.

"It's a pleasure," Mr. Medvin grinned, "to negotiate with reasonable people with whom one disagrees. I don't often have that pleasure on Council"

Two Men Die in Separate Traffic Accidents On Princeton-Kingston and Washington Roads

Two men were killed in car accidents last week in the Township -- the second and third 1976 traffic fatalities in that community.

Santo Tocco, 49, of 406 Terhune Road, Princeton businessman and contractor, was killed in a two-car collision early Friday morning on the Princeton-Kingston Road, and Theodore T. Ratkowski, 50, of Hightstown was killed early Monday morning when his car left Washington Road and struck a large tree near the ROTC Armory driveway. Both victims were pronounced dead at Princeton Medical Center.

Elizabeth Olney, 19, 401 Walnut Lane, driver of the car which collided with the Tocco car, was taken to the Medical Center and admitted in critical condition with head and internal injuries. She underwent a three-hour operation the same day and her condition was described on Tuesday as satisfactory.

The funeral service for Mr. Tocco was held Monday at St. Paul's Church. Born in Export, Pa., he had been a resident of Princeton for 30 years.

A self-employed contractor Mr. Tocco was in the process of renovating an addition to Lahiere's Restaurant on Witherspoon Street. He was also owner of the Pink Elephant cocktail lounge on Nassau Street. He was a member of the Italian-American Sportsmen's Club in Princeton and the Roma Eterna Lodge.

He is survived by his wife, Anne Fiumenero Tocco; three sons, Ronald, Santo Jr. and John; a daughter, Nina; his mother, Emma S. Tocco of Italy; a sister, Theresa, a Dominican nun in Italy; and two brothers, Alfred of Princeton and John of Lockport, N.Y. and several nieces and nephews.

Following a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Paul's Church interment was in the parish cemetary.

The collision took place about 2 a.m. on a straight-away section of Route 27 just south of Dodds Lane. "We don't know what happened there," said Sgt. Anthony Nini, the Township's traffic Safety Officer. Police have not been able to talk with Miss Olney and no charges have been made.

It appears that impact took place in the north bound lane, police report, the lane that Mr. Tocco was driving as he headed toward Kingston. Both cars were demolished.

Sgt. Nini added that a third driver who struck Mr. Tocco's 1970 station wagon shortly after the collision was not a witness to the accident. The driver, Michelle J. Rudon, 19, of 9 Millbrook Lane, Trenton, was treated for a back injury at the Medical Center and released.

Mr. Tocco was pronounced dead on arrival by Dr. Frank Sparrow. Both he and Miss Olney were alone in their cars at the time, police said. Both were still trapped inside their cars when police arrived.

The investigating officer was Ptl. William Potts, assisted by Sgt. Michael Kopliner and Sgt. Nini.

No Witnesses. There were no witnesses to the Ratkowski accident which took place at 2:55 Memorial Day morning.

"For some reason," said Sgt. Nini, "he crossed the opposite lane and struck a large tree." Mr. Ratkowski, who was alone in his car and heading toward U.S. 1, lived at 134 Bennington Drive in Hightstown. Taken to the Medical Center by the Princeton First Aid and Rescue Squad, he was pronounced dead about 3:30. His 1967 sedan was a total loss.

An employee of the Mercer County engineering department, he was a charter member of the American Legion Post 458 and the American Legion Color Guard. He was also a member of the VFW Post No. 7298, the Trenton Polish-American Democratic Club, Village 76 Country Club and the Mercer County Employment Bowling League.

He is survived by a son, Ted Jr.; a daughter, Johanna both of Lawrence Township; three brothers and one sister, all of Trenton.

The first traffic fatality in the Township occurred on February 14 and claimed the life of a seven-year old girl in a collision at Rosedale and Provinceline Roads.

Last year, six persons were killed in the Township in three accidents, one taking the lives of three young people in a single car crash on a curve at the foot of Bayard Lane.

COX HERE FRIDAY

To Support Udall. Archibald Cox, survivor of the "Saturday Night Massacre" of October, 1973, will speak in support of Congressman Morris K. Udall at a cocktail reception to be held Friday from 5 at the home of Fred Bohen, 128 Fitz-Randolph Road. Tickets are $30 per person, $35 per couple and are available at Udall headquarters, 188 Nassau, or through 924-8407.

Mr. Cox, a professor at Harvard Law School, was the first Watergate special prosecutor and was fired from that job by former President Richard M. Nixon. His dismissal precipitated the resignations of Attorney General Elliott Richardson and Deputy Attorney General William Ruckelshaus.

Organization and has been a long-time activist in politics.

In Princeton Township, Kate Litvack will serve as coordinator. Mrs. Litvack is a past president of the Princeton Community Democratic Organization and, like Mrs. Bessire, has been politically active for many years.

The Middlesex portion of the 14th District will be coordinated by Thomas Ford of Plainshoro and Carol Van Cleef of Cranbury. Mr. Ford has been involved in both local and national campaigns over the past few years. Miss Van Cleef is a student at Georgetown University in the school of Foreign Affairs and is a past president of the Hightstown High School Student Council.

These coordinators will work with the candidates for delegate Anne Martindell of Princeton, Michael Gold of Flemington, and candidate for alternate Randall Filer of Princeton to insure a strong turnout for Jimmy Carter and his delegate slates on Tuesday. Their work will be complicated by the ballot which requires the voter to vote five times in order to support completely the Carter candidacy.

Questions about the ballot should be directed to the coordinators or the Carter headquarters at 20 Nassau Street.

"NO" BY DEFAULT

In Zoning Case. The Borough Zoning Board could have used a couple of variances from parliamentary procedure at its meeting last Thursday. Because the board couldn't get a vote on the request of Eunice Davis for conditional use authorization, the request was automatically denied.

Ms. Davis wants to make the two-family double house at 27-9 Vandeventer into a three-family house by remodeling one side into two apartments. After the case had been presented, board member Kathryn Kuhn moved to deny the request. Alan Chimacoff seconded her motion, but there was only one vote – her own – in favor of it. Because the board has five members, the law says there must be at least three votes to carry any motion.

So board member Chimacoff moved to approve the request. He didn't even get a second. Without a second, there could not be a vote. Without a vote, under the law, the application is automatically denied. Ms. Davis' only recourse now is to the courts.

Part of the problem was a shortage of board members. Michael Rockland was absent. Margery Claghorn disqualified herself because she is a neighbor on Vandeventer. (She is opposed to the request, however). John McGoldrick didn't sit on the case because he's just bought the property next door. That left only Mrs. Kuhn, Mr. Chimacoff, Albert Hinds and Roger McDonough.

Willie Mae Tadlock was late in notifying neighbors of her plans for 29 Green Street so her case will be heard June 24. Leland Birch was given permission to make a small addition to his 14 Sargeant Street house.

Attendance at Reunions Expected to Be Largest in 20 Years

Some 4,000 alumni and their families, about 10,000 people in all, are expected to be "going back" for this year's Princeton University Reunions. According to David G. Rahr '60, director of the Alumni Council, this should be the largest attendance since 1956.

A wide range of activities has been planned, from faculty-alumni forums, campus tours, receptions, a film festival and of course the parties and other class-related events that make Princeton Reunions a unique event. It will start Wednesday afternoon and run through Saturday.

The classes of 1926 and 1951 celebrating their 50th and 25th reunions expect more than half their members to return. Other classes celebrating a major reunion anticipate at least 30 percent of their members to be present.

The traditional Princeton orange and black will take a back seat to a mass of red, white and blue in the traditional P-rade Saturday at 2. The nation's colors will be worn by the Class of 1951, which will lead the procession and which calls itself the "Revolutionary Reunion Class."

However, the Class of 1946 has staked its claim as the real 200th anniversary class. "We were officially declared the Bicentennial class because we graduated in the year of the University's 200th birthday," says class president A.C. Reeves Hicks. The class will have a "dichotomy of marchers," led by the 2nd Marine Division Drum and Bugle Corps, as well as the colonially-clad Egg Harbor Guard.

Grand Marshall Frank T. Gorman, Class of 1941, will lead the alumni and their families through the campus down Prospect Street to Clarke Field and past the president's reviewing stand. Mr. Gorman has led the P-rade for 12 consecutive years now and also organizes the 50 other marshalls who keep the whole operation moving smoothly.

While the P-rade is outlandish and joyously ridiculous, it is also nostalgic and poignant, says Dr. Fred Fox, Class of 1939 and University recorder. "When you look at a P-rade, you see yourself and your whole life passing by. Your youth in the younger classes, the optimism of a young family just getting started, then the maturity and wisdom of the older committed citizen. Finally you're part of the 'Old Guard,' bravely leading the P-rade in an electric golf cart."

Ceremonies and receptions leading up to the University's 229th Commencement on Tuesday will follow close on the heels of Reunions. Dr. James I. McCord of Princeton Theological Seminary will address trustees, administration, faculty, seniors and parents in the Baccalaureate Service Sunday at 11 in the University Chapel. President and Mrs. William Bowen will hold a garden party for all those attending commencement Sunday afternoon in Prospect Garden.

On Monday Class Day exercises will be held on Cannon Green at 11, or in Dillon Gym in case of rain. Commencement will take place Tuesday at 11 in front of Nassau Hall. Some 1,050 seniors are expected to receive A.B. and B.S.E. degrees and approximately 1,500 will be awarded graduate degrees.

CHACE RESIGNS

Authority Votes Plan A. Dean Chace has resigned as Princeton Township's representative to the Stony Brook Regional Sewerage Authority, effective immediately.

In his stinging letter of resignation, he warned "In a few years, it will cost the average Princeton Township taxpayer more to flush his toilet than it will for police protection, road maintenance and recreation (including paddle-tennis) combined."

Writing Ezra Bixby, Authority chairman, Mr. Chace says his decision has nothing to do with his "disappointment" at the Authority's vote of approval for the one-plant Plan A at last week's meeting. The vote leaves open the possibility that the Authority might change its mind if its present consultants, Westwater, Gaston and Dunka, advise it. Mr. Chace cast the single "no" vote.

The firm will fill in what it regards as missing data in the Authority's position paper and report at the next Authority meeting June 29 -- changed from June 22 -- at 8 p.m. in Borough Hall.

In his letter, Mr. Chace points out that Township Committee's May 17 resolution asking that he check with Committee before voting on any plan, was made without consulting him.

"I have a difficult enough time dealing with the Authority's problems," he wrote, "without having to additionally deal with a group of people, however competent and nice, who cannot, in my opinion, hope to have any meaningful understanding of the Authority's business. Moreover, I simply cannot afford the extra time implied by the Committee resolution."

Mr. Chace also wrote that, although he has no responsibility for the Township Environmental Commission, he would like to apologize for the Commission's "irresponsible and scurrilous report" at the May 20 meeting. At that meeting, the Commission charged the Authority with "Unresponsive tactics" and asked why it continued to approve Plan A "regardless what the advice is."

Mr. Chace also castigated the state for the "shoddy treatment" it has given the Authority's project. "The state got us into this mess, but there is little reason to hope that it will bail us out," he wrote, "incredibly, it has apparently even withdrawn its financial support."

ASSAULT BRINGS FINE

And One Year Probation. In a special session of Township court held Friday, Judge Philip Carchman fined Roland Glover, 34 Red Oak Row, $425 and placed him on a year's probation for assaulting Township Ptl. Mario Musso.

A 30-day sentence to the Mercer County Workhouse was suspended. Ptl. Musso was the complainant. A counter assault charge against Ptl. Musso by Mr. Glover was dismissed. Mr. Glover also was fined $90 on a traffic violation of leaving the scene of an accident.

Mark J. PoKemper, 249 Shady Brook Lane, pleaded not guilty to a charge of being an unlicensed motorcycle driver but was found guilty and fined $65. Carol S. Pollard, 11 Toth Lane, Rocky Hill, paid $44 for speeding.

PHS ALUMNUS ARRESTED

On School Grounds. Robert L. Wood Jr., 18, of Kendall Park, has been admitted to the Marlboro State Hospital for observation following his arrest last week on the grounds of Princeton High School. He is a former student at PHS and was a member of the football team.

Ptl. Bernard Lenhardt responded to a call reporting that Wood would not leave the school grounds. He also refused to comply with Ptl. Lenhardt who had to receive additional aid from Sgt. Ralph Proccacino and Det. Ronald Holiday. Wood was taken to police headquarters in handcuffs.

He was charged with assault and battery, resisting arrest and disrupting and interfering with the peace and good order of the high school. Ptl. Lenhardt, police said, sustained contusions of the forearm, wrist and hand and sprains of the elbow after allegedly being kicked by Wood.

Because of Wood's erratic behavior, police had him examined by a doctor and psychiatrist at the Princeton Medical Center. His commitment papers to the state hospital were signed by Judge Philip Carchman.

During his fracas with police, Wood broke loose and tried -- while still in handcuffs -- to jump on the back of a motorcycle driven by a friend. The driver of the motorcycle, David W. Cox, 18, 2 Franklin Terrace, was arrested two days later, on Friday, and charged with assisting a criminal. He was later released.

Special Officer Charged. John E. Thomas, 29, of Trenton, a special officer, was scheduled to appear in Borough Court this Wednesday afternoon, after his arrest last week on Campbelton Circle.

He was charged with violating a law which stipulates that special officers may wear firearms only in the community in which they work and only when on duty. Police said Mr. Thomas was in uniform and wearing a sidearm when he was arrested.

$2500 RING TAKEN

From Township Home. A 1.80 carat diamond ring in a platinum setting with two diamond baguettes was stolen last week from the home of Ralph H. Kline, 174 Meadowbrook Drive. The ring was valued at $2,500.

Police said that entry to the home was gained through a second-floor window. Ptl. Harry Morton investigated.

The home of Leonard P. Gotsch, 86 Leabrook Lane, was also entered through a second-floor window last week and completely ransacked.

Police report that it is not yet known what is missing. The entry was reported Thursday morning.

A woman's pocketbook containing $100 was stolen between 6:45 p.m. Saturday and 1:30 Sunday morning by a thief who pried open a screen and sliding glass door at the rear of the home of Leo Brannick, 140 Grover Avenue.

Police said that credit cards from Mrs. Brannick's purse were later found in the Princeton Shopping Center parking area adjacent to the rear of the house. Ptl. David Funk investigated.

3 Attempted Entries. There were also three more attempted entries into Township homes none of which were successful.

A kitchen door window was broken in an attempt to enter the home of Bessie Hillian, 283 Mt. Lucas Road; there was an attempt to remove a screen from a front room window at the home of Mrs. Augusta Barrios, 115 Harris Road, and an attempt to pry a rear door at the home of Mrs. Mary Dinella, 220 Terhune Road.

"Somebody has got to be operating in that area," commented Chief Frederick Porter.

5 BREAK-INS LISTED

In Borough by Police. Borough police reported five break-ins last week.

An apartment of a Witherspoon Street resident was entered between 6 and 9:25 Thursday evening by a thief who escaped with a tape recorder valued at $250, two cartons of stereo equipment, a stereo amplifier and turntable. Entry was through an unlocked rear window.

Not far away on Berrien Court, a pane of glass was broken out of a bedroom window to enter a woman's apartment. Taken, police said, were a television set, $75 in cash, three silver dollars and three half-dollars. Entry was Thursday between 4 and 9:30 p.m.

Forty dollars was stolen from a dresser drawer in a bedroom of a Dickinson Street resident last week by an intruder who took advantage of an unlocked window. Nothing else was taken, police said.

A visitor from Norristown, Pa. had his room at the Nassau Inn rifled last week. He lost a $195 tape recorder, pocket calculator, suitcase, briefcase and nylon raincoat. There were no signs of forced entry.

The REA office on University Place was entered between 8 Saturday evening and 8 the next morning by someone who broke a three-foot window on the east side of the building. Although desk drawers had been ransacked, police said that nothing was missing.

THREE ELECTED

Trustees of PDS. The Board of Trustees of Princeton Day School named three new members at its annual meeting and also elected officers for the 1976-77 academic year.

Elected to their first three-year terms were Mrs. Alexander K. Buck of Province Line Road; Mrs. Neal W. O'Connor of Princeton-Kingston Road; and Walter P. Gips of Brookstone Drive, president of Gulton Industries, Metuchen. Also elected to a full three-year term, having served the balance of an unexpired term, was Benjamin B. Tregoe Jr. of Heather Lane, partner in Kepner-Tregoe, Inc.

Dr. William P. Burks of Russell Road was re-elected chairman of the board of trustees. Other officers are Charles L. Taggart, vice-chairman; Geoffrey Nunes, treasurer; Mrs. John L. Moore, Jr., secretary; and Carl C. Storey, assistant secretary.

PHOTOGRAPHS ON VIEW

By Black Photographers. The Black Photographers Union is sponsoring an exhibit Sunday from 1 until 5 at the Youth Center, 102 Witherspoon Street. Photographs of the Princeton community taken by black photographers will be on display. The public is invited and admission is free.

Carter Here Saturday

Jimmy Carter, Democratic candidate for President in New Jersey's June 8 primary, will be in Princeton on Saturday evening for a fund-raising party at the home of Senator Anne Martindell, 1 Battle Road.

Senator Martindell is co-chairman of the New Jersey Carter campaign and is running as a delegate for Carter in the 14th District.

Anyone interested in meeting Governor Carter may contact the Princeton campaign office at 921-6570.

MARTINDELL TO SPEAK

At Nuclear Rally. State Senator Anne Martindell will give the welcome this Saturday at the noon-to-3 p.m. Rally Against Nuclear Power to be held on the steps of the state capitol in Trenton.

Stewart Udall, former Secretary of the Interior and brother of Democratic presidential hopeful Morris Udall, will give a brief talk at an unannounced time early in the rally.

During the three hours, the 20 sponsoring organizations will make available their "Petition for a Non-Nuclear Future." Those who sign will be asked to pay $1 for the privilege, giving a campaign chest for the groups. A puppet theatre troupe will also perform several times during the afternoon.

The Citizens for Responsible Power Policies of Princeton, is one of the sponsors and so is the Whole Earth Center, also of Princeton. Other sponsors are groups throughout New Jersey concerned about the nuclear power industry in the state.

The rally is part of a national movement, and similar demonstrations have been planned for the same day in other parts of the country, according to members of Princeton's "Citizens" group.

Other speakers in Trenton on Saturday will be Dr. George Wald, Nobel laureate from Harvard; Hazel Henderson, Princeton resident who is co-director of Environmentalists for Full Employment, Washington; Denis Hayes of Worldwatch Institute, Washington, author of "Nuclear Power: the Fifth Horseman;" Dr. Helen Caldicott, Boston pediatrician; Tom Carney of the North Jersey Federation of Senior Citizens and the Rev. Paul Mayer of New York Theological Seminary.

TEENAGER IS CHARGED

With Shoplisting. Diane W. Cheung, 19, of East Brunswick has been charged with shoplifting by Township police after she allegedly took clothing valued at $83 from Bamberger's in the Princeton Shopping Center.

Miss Cheung was apprehended Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Constance Johnson of the store's security department and turned over to police for processing. She was later released, pending her appearance in Township court.

LOVE SEAT STOLEN

Car Battery, Too. A love seat and car battery were reported stolen last week in the Borough. The redwood love seat, valued at $30, was taken from the front porch of a Lytle Street resident.

When a Groveville resident returned to his car Friday night at 11, he discovered that the car's $30 battery had been stolen. His car was in the Palmer Square lot adjacent to the Princeton Playhouse.

TWENTY-THREE BORN

At Princeton Medical Center. In the week ending May 29, 11 boys and 12 girls were born in the Medical Center at Princeton.

Also to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harrison, 75 Rocky Brook Road, Cranbury, May 27; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Goldberg, 32 Prestile Place, Robbinsville; Mr. and Mrs. John J. McGowan, B3 Wynnbrook West, East Windsor, both on May 28; and Mr. and Mrs. Michael B. Andolina, 47 Slayback Drive, Princeton Junction, May 29.

Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. David P. Bradt, 215 Morrison Avenue, Hightstown; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kovatch, 24 Willow Run Lane, Belle Mead, both on May 23; Mr. and Mrs. H. Larry Holden, 27 Beverly Drive, Belle Mead; Mr. and Mrs. Richard I. Krebs, 59 New Road, Kendall Park, May 26; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Agabiti, 12 Michele Court, Mercerville; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bozowski, Georges Road, Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wigden, Box 5086, Kendall Park, all on May 27.

Also to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones, RD 1 Dogwood Lane, May 28; Mr. and Mrs. Erkii Korpijaako, 39 Maple Street; Mr. and Mrs. William C. Koehler, 139B Northgate Apartments, Cranbury; and Mr. and Mrs. James C. Savage, 1 Harwin Drive, East Brunswick, all on May 29.

THREE WIN AWARDS

At PHS. The Business and Professional Women's Club has announced the winners of its 1976 Scholarship Program. These awards are made to senior girls at Princeton High School who have high scholastic standing and high qualities of character, personality, and initiative and who are planning to further their education in the field of business or the professions.

Two $200 awards were made to Amy Dunbar of 44 Maple Street who will be going to Williams College, and to Linda Kandell, 343 Witherspoon Street, who will be attending Douglass College. Betsy Murphy, 62 Dorann Avenue, who will be attending Cornell University, received a $100 award. The scholarship committee is headed by Mrs. Gloria E. Seitz, assisted by Miss A. Myrtle Hensor, Mrs. Terry McQuade, Mrs. Margaret Pazdan, Miss Muriel R. Perrine and Mrs. Helen Povilaitis.

KARATE OFFERED

For Women 16 and Over. The Woman's Place is holding registration for a Karate course for women, instructed by black belt holder Michael Hill. The course will meet twice weekly for four weeks, beginning Thursday, June 10.

Classes will be held Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 and Saturday mornings, 11 to 1. The first Thursday evening class will be held at the Woman's Place, 14½ Witherspoon Street. Saturday classes will be held outdoors, weather permitting. Registration for women, 16 years and up, is $50. Kathi Collins at 921-6778 will provide additional information.

CRAFT SHOW JUNE 12

Near East Millstone. Wooden and stuffed toys, painting on velvet, pewter making, free lessons on plant terrariums, old-fashioned baked goods and craft demonstrations are samples of what a colonial craft show and sale will offer Saturday, June 12.

The event will take place from 10 to 5 at the historic Blackwells-Mills Canal House at the corner of Blackwells Mills and Canal roads, between East Millstone and Griggstown.

For the children there will also be two magic shows presented by John Maltby.

Refreshments will be served from a quaint toll house. There will be a $1 admission fee.

The Canal House borders the historic Delaware & Raritan Canal. Built in the 1830's, when the canal itself was constructed, it was home for generations of bridge-tenders. It has since been restored and established as a historical center, library and museum by the Blackwells Mills Canal House Association, sponsor of the craft show and sale.

WORKSHOPS SCHEDULED

By The Woman's Place. Two participatory workshops with discussion, "Sexism in Corporations" and "Feeling Our Solidness," have been planned at the Woman's Place, 14½ Witherspoon Street, for the month of June. The workshops are free and open to all area people.

Dr. Jennifer Macleod, former feminist consultant on affirmative action for women, will lead the "Sexism in Corporations" workshop next Wednesday at 8. She will discuss patterns of institutional and personal sexism in corporations and demonstrate techniques she has used in anti-sexism workshops. Dr. Macleon was a founder and first coordinator of the Central New Jersey NOW Chapter and is presently vice president of personnel of Fidelity Bank in Philadelphia.

On Wednesday, June 23, at 8 participants in "Feeling Our Solidness-Chanelling Energies" workshop will explore themselves when neither aggressing nor submitting but "feeling solid." The group will be led by Vickie Rebeck, assistant professor of English at Union College. She has participated in numerous humanistic psychology workshops and has done training as a Gestalt therapist.

The workshops are two in a series of mini-courses offered at the Woman's Place since last October. No pre-registration is required. Call 924-8989 for more information.

MEMORIAL PLANNED

For Richard Halliburton. Richard Halliburton, the legendary writer-adventurer who was lost at sea 37 years ago while trying to sail the Pacific Ocean in a Chinese junk, will be honored by Princeton University over Reunion weekend.

A 1921 graduate of Princeton, Mr. Halliburton foresook the accepted career avenues of law, medicine, or business for a life of adventure and eventually wrote seven best-selling books on his travels. Many of his old college friends and roommates will be on hand at 11 a.m. Friday, during the 55th reunion of the Class of 1921, when the University dedicates the Richard Halliburton Map Collection in the Map Room of Firestone Library.

"He had swum the Hellespont and the Panama Canal. Crossed the Alps on an elephant like Hannibal. Climbed Mount Olympus, the Matterhorn, and Fujiyama 'in the impossible season.' He had

'Princetonian' Will Mark Its First 100 Years With Forum Saturday on 'The Ethics of Leaks'

Former CIA Director William Colby and CBS correspondent Daniel Schorr will be featured speakers in the journalism symposium to be held at Princeton University.

"The Ethics of Leaks: The Right to Know versus the Right to Withhold," a forum sponsored by "The Daily Princetonian" as part of its centennial celebration, will be held here Saturday, June 5, 10:30 to 12:30 in Alexander Hall.

Many leaders in journalism and public affairs will participate in the symposium, which is being cosponsored by the Alumni Council as part of reunions weekend. Besides Mr. Colby (Princeton Class of 1940) and Mr. Schorr, panelists will include the following former members of the "Prince" managing board: William Attwood '41, publisher of "Newsday;" William Ewing '61, a Philadelphia lawyer; Jose Ferrer III '61, writer-editor of "Time" magazine's law section; Donald Oberdorfer '52, national affairs reporter for "The Washington Post;" and Edward Barrett '32, director of the Communications Institute, former dean of Columbia Journalism School and former undersecretary of state for public affairs. John Oakes '34, editorial page editor of "The New York Times", will serve as moderator.

"By focusing on a topic important to the press and the country, we hope to add an intellectual dimension to the celebration of our centennial," said Robert Ruxin '76, a former "Prince" chairman and organizer of the forum.

One of the oldest student newspapers in the country, "The Daily Princetonian" can list many of Princeton's most distinguished alumni among its former writers and editors. Both Woodrow Wilson (Class of 1879) and Adlai Stevenson '22 served as managing editors. James V. Forrestal '15, first secretary of defense, and Supreme Court Justice John M. Harlan '20 worked on the managing board.

Other staffers included Robert McLean '13 (who was chairman of the photography board); and Harvey S. Firestone '20 (business manager). Many of today's familiar bylines first appeared in the "Prince": R.W. "Johnny"" Apple '57, James M. Markham '65, and Robin C. Herman '73 of "The New York Times" (Miss Herman became the Times' first full-time woman sports reporter); Frank Deford '61 of "Sports Illustrated;" James F. Ridgeway '59 of "The Village Voice;" Peter Bunzel '49 of the Los Angeles "Times"; Donald Kirk '59 of the Chicago "Tribune"; and many others.

"The Daily Princetonian" is also displaying, now through September, an exhibit in the lobby of Firestone Library of photographs, famous front pages and other memorabilia of its first 100 years.

Dr. Chesebro Concludes 25 Years as Headmaster Of The Hun School as 93 Seniors Are Graduated

Dr. Paul R. Chesebro presided at commencement exercises for 93 graduating seniors Sunday at The Hun School.

The event marked the conclusion of Dr. Chesebro's 25th academic year as Headmaster of Hun, and the last commencement prior to his retirement on July 1.

Dr. Harold W. Dodds, President Emeritus of Princeton University, who gave the commencement address in 1951, Dr. Chesebro's first year at Hun, was a special guest at yesterday's ceremonies, as was Edward B. Wall, Dean of Admissions at Amherst College. Dr. Chesebro is an Amherst graduate.

The commencement address was made by Dr. Chesebro who shared with the graduates the lessons he had learned during 25 years as headmaster. He emphasized the importance of holding fast to "timeless values" while retaining a flexibility to make "timely changes." He also underscored the rewards of a life of sharing and service, the value of faith, and the necessity of discipline in education and in one's personal life.

Dr. Chesebro told the seniors that they and the 24 classes preceding them had taught him four lessons:

- Hold firm to your personal philosophy.
- Share your life with others.
- Have faith in yourself and your fellow man.
- Remember that little is ever achieved without discipline.

As you go forth – our first graduating class to be launched into the third century of the Republic he concluded, "I trust these lessons will guide you to the happiness and fulfillment I have experienced while at Hun."

Ceremonies began with an invocation by the Rev. Reford Nash, School Chaplain. The Valedictory Address was presented by Regina L. Jablonski of Trenton and the Salutatory Address was given by Daniele E. Regge of Princeton.

Following the presentation of diplomas by Arthur G. Hailand, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Trustees, the students were addressed by Eugene Freda, President of the Alumni Association.

The John Hun Scholarship Award for the highest academic average in the senior class went to Miss Jablonski; the Headmaster's Prize for highest academic average in the school went to John Fung of Hong Kong. Kenneth Baggaley of Lawrenceville won the James McFadden Memorial Award for loyalty .and sportsmanship, and Mary Duffy of Kendall Park received the John L. Kuschke Award for outstanding achievement in extra-curricular activities.

Ernest Barbiero of Trenton and Terry McEwen of Princeton shared the John R. Scott Memorial Award for excellence in athletics, sportsmanship, leadership and school spirit. The Faculty Prize, awarded for development in character and reliability, went to Leslie Liapes of New Brunswick. The Robert Strianese Memorial Award, for leadership and loyalty to the school, was awarded to David Faus of Cos Cob, Connecticut.

Anthony Muscente of Lawrenceville won the Charles R. Hollenbach Memorial Scholarship for the junior with outstanding proficiency in social studies, while Cheryl Toto of Trenton received the Michael DeMauro Scholarship for the sophomore who displayed a high degree of courage, selflessness and readiness for service to the school.

The Edward L. Arnold Memorial Fine Arts Prize was awarded to Marjorie Szeker of Trenton; the Erna Fankhauser Memorial Prize for Proficiency in German to Elizabeth Hoffmann of Trenton; the Helen Farnum Memorial History Prize to Julie Kane of Princeton; and the Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Medal to Miss Jablonski.

Paula Sanders of Trenton received both the English Prize and the French Prize. The Mathematics Prize went to William Dietrich of Hamilton Square; the Science Prize to Daniele E. Regge; and the Spanish Prize to Robert Krieger of Woodmere, New York.

Members of the senior class from this area elected to the Cum Laude Society include Cecilia Bacso of Princeton Junction, Kenneth Baggaley of Lawrenceville, Lisabeth Conn, Diane Cronin and Howard Metzger, Jr., of Princeton.

Dance to Honor Chesebro

A Testimonial Dinner-Dance in honor of Headmaster Paul R. Cbesebro and Mrs. Chesebro will be sponsored by The Hun School Alumni Association on Saturday, June 19, on the school campus.

The event will mark Dr. Chesebro's retirement after 25 years as Headmaster and after an association with the school which began in 1926.

Alumni, parents and friends are invited to attend the ceremony and may obtain information through Mrs. Hawley Waterman at The Hun School.

marched with the French Foreign Legion, suffered with the prisoners on Devil's Island.

"He was jailed as a spy at Gibraltar, and bathed by moonlight in the waters of the Taj Mahal. For 18 years – the whole of his brief adult life – he did nothing but seek adventures and earn his keep by writing and telling people about them," writes Louis P. "Chip" Deffaa '73, who is completing a biography of Halliburton for Bobbs-Merrill, the adventurer's old publisher. Mr. Deffaa has retraced Halliburton's steps around the world and will be present at the ceremonies.

A plaque in Mr. Halliburton's honor will include a photograph of him standing on a mountaintop and will be inscribed in part: "In 1939, lost at sea in a Pacific typhoon, he left his earthly fortune to the University Library for the purchase of materials in history, geography and travel. He also left a legacy of spirit -- described by his classmates as 'unconventional, unpredictable and unassuming' -- which continues to inspire others to explore the inner as well as the outer reaches of humankind."

Guidance Counselor Popular.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

I am writing to you on behalf of 360 students at Princeton High School, who signed a petition to keep Mr. Bracoloni as a guidance counselor next year. He is going to be dropped from the guidance department because of budget cuts. We feel very strongly that Mr. Bracoloni is one of the best guidance counselors on the staff of Princeton High School. He has helped many of us stick it out in school, and he is always there to help when you have a problem.

We circulated a petition around the school and in two days we got 360 signatures. I think this response has alot to say about how much Mr. Bracoloni is wanted and needed in the guidance department.

After we circulated the petition we took it to Mr. Petrillo, the school principal. He was very helpful and understanding about it, but he also pointed out that the petition wouldn't do any good even though we were sending it to the school board.

Mr. Bracoloni has been at the High School for 20 years, but he has only been in guidance for four years.

It is hard for me to understand how the school board would not take into consideration how such a large portion of the student body feels about one man. I hope you will print my letter so your readers can support our sincere efforts to keep an outstanding member of the High School faculty.

Announcement Amplified.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Thank you for announcing that an impression of the Mercer Oak by Tom George will be painted on the Community Liquors warehouse. The design was selected for the Public Works of Art project of the Mercer County Cultural and Heritage Commission.

It should be pointed out that the $700 award does not go to the artist but to the submitting organization; in this case, the Borough of Princeton, the Greater Princeton Chamber of Commerce and the Arts Council. It will be used in translating the work of art from the design stage to the actual painting on the wall. This involves people, scaffolding, and myriad expenses. It is hoped that additional funds will be forthcoming from individuals and businesses as the cost of completing the project will exceed the amount received.

And more thanks to Tom George for contributing his talents to this project.

Community Spirit Lacking.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

The members of the Princeton Volunteer Week Parade Committee, responsible for coordinating the first "Princeton Volunteer Week Activities" believe it is necessary to respond to the unfair and misleading allegations made in the letter to the Editor by Mrs. Rita A. Novitt, President, Board of Directors, Queenston Commons Property Owners Association. (Town Topics, May 27.)

Mrs. Novitt strenously objected to some of the parade formation activities which were held at the intersection of North Harrison Street and Hamilton Avenue on Saturday, May 15. Our Committee was disappointed that Mrs. Novitt did not lend us the common courtesy of meeting with the members of the Volunteer Committee to share her complaints and make an honest effort to procure all the facts before attacking our sincere efforts in the news media. After months of planning and hard work done by dedicated volunteers organizing this major activity, we fail to understand Mrs. Novitt's motive and rationale, but plan to seek a meeting with the members of the Queenston Commons Association to procure their complaints and at the same time present them with all the facts. For the public's information, some of the important facts are as follows:

1. At no time in the planning or execution of the parade activities did our plans include using any of the private properties including Queenston Commons. No authorization was ever given by a member of our committee for horses to graze on the open field adjacent to Queenston Commons or for senior citizens to sit on this grass. When Princeton Borough Police advised Mr. Lombardo that Mrs. Novitt had complained that senior citizens were sitting on the grass and horses grazing on the field owned by Queenston Commons, he immediately responded to and rectified the problem.

We cannot thank the children and adult owners of the horses enough for volunteering their efforts and incurring all the costs and inconvenience in transporting the horses so that they could participate in our Community Parade.

2. The Borough Police did everything in their power to make the parade step-off area as convenient as possible for the residents of Queenston Commons (as they do in other neighborhoods), at the same time protect the safety of the honored volunteers participating in the parade. As usual, they did an excellent job and did in no way commandeer the streets as suggested in Mrs. Novitt's letter.

3. The purpose of starting the parade at the Harrison-Hamilton Avenue intersection was to make it convenient for the great number of elderly that reside in the area to witness the parade. The original plan was to have seats for senior citizens set up on the sidewalk for their comfort and convenience.

Finally, the Princeton Volunteer Parade Committee is sincerely sorry that the property owners were in any way inconvenienced due to the 25 minute parade formation which took place in the area of their neighborhood. Certainly no harm was intended to their field by any of the dedicated community volunteers participating in the parade.

On the other hand, isn't it a shame that such a major issue has been made over an unintentional and inadvertent occurence that was rectified as soon as it was discovered.

Authorities advise us that in over 20 years, the residents of Princeton Avenue have never complained about the inconvenience of parades forming on their street. Perhaps Mrs. Novitt could learn a little about entering into the community spirit of such an event instead of spending time and energy complaining about problems that have already been addressed.

All in all it was a great week honoring the hundreds of dedicated individuals who have sacrificed a great deal for the Princeton Communities. The committee support was fabulous.

Timely Advice on Housing.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Pat Light's excellent "Down to Earth Notes" in the May 27th TOWN TOPICS (on page 9B for those who missed it) raised a number of pertinent questions about the pending recommendations of the Housing Subcommittee of the Planning Board for the housing section of our new Master Plan. It is certainly a complex subject, and all of us in the Princeton community need to be given time to understand exactly what is proposed, why it is proposed, and what effect this will have on the community -- before we are rushed into public hearings unprepared.

One wonders whether the members of the subcommittee themselves feel they have adequate answers to the kind of questions Mrs. Light raises. Take just one – she tells us that the Natural Resources Inventory information for Princeton is not yet in readily understandable and workable form, but will be shortly.

It appears this wealth of data was not adequately used in the development of the plan before the Board.

Isn't it generally accepted today that the preparation of such an inventory is the first step of planning, ("a counting of blessings" as they say in the trade.) Second comes the setting of standards to protect public safety, health and welfare within a price people can afford. And thirdly the establishment of a plan which takes into account the resources and the standards.

Many New Jersey townships have already demonstrated the effectiveness of this sort of enlightened planning. Shouldn't Princeton, with its unique character and history, and the talent available in the community, take the steps readily available to do this right -- to be a leader, not a follower!

Dr. Benjamin F. Howell

OBITUARIES

Dr. Benjamin F. Howell, 85, died May 28 in State College, Pennsylvania, where he had lived since the spring of 1975. His home here many years was at 282 Snowden Lane.

Professor emeritus of Geology and Paleontology, Dr. Howell joined the Princeton University faculty in 1915. Since 1924 he has been Curator of Invertebrate Paleontology and Stratigraphy and had served on the faculty until his retirement in 1959.

In addition to his work at Princeton, Dr. Howell served from 1937 to 1947 as Curator of the Department of Geology and Paleontology at the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia. A graduate of Princeton in the Class of 1913, Dr. Howell was cited for his distinguished scientific contributions in 1947 when he received the Class of 1913 Cup, awarded annually to an outstanding member of the class.

Dr. Howell was, from 1928 to 1947, Professor of Geology and Paleontology at the Wagner Free Institute of Science, Philadelphia, in addition to his duties at Princeton. He was also a Lecturer in Paleontology at the University of Pennsylvania for several years. During World War I he was Vice President of the academic board of the U.S. Army's School of Military Aeronautics at Princeton.

Born September 30, 1890 in Troy Hills, N.J., Dr. Howell received his A.M. here in 1915 and his Ph.D. in 1920. In that year he was named Assistant Professor. He became an Associate Professor in 1926 and Professor in 1947.

He is survived by his wife, the former Claire Mead, and a son, Benjamin F. Howell, Jr., a member of the Princeton Class of 1939, and chairman of the Department of Geophysics and Geochemistry at Pennsylvania State University.

Mrs. Alice F. Gottlieb, 50, of 3331 Lawrenceville Road, died May 30 in Princeton Medical Center. Born in Providence, R.I., she lived in Princeton for 15 years.

Mrs. Gottlieb was a 1946 graduate of Pembroke College of Brown University and of Columbia University School of Social Work. She was employed as the school social worker with the East Windsor Township Board of Education. She was a member of the board of directors of the Family Service Agency and the Lawrenceville Neighborhood Center and a past member of the Council of Community Services and served on the Lawrenceville Juvenile Case Conference Committee.

Surviving are her husband, Daniel Gottlieb, a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Maura E., both at home; a sister, Mrs. Constance Taft of Cranston, R.I.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in Cranston with hurial in St. Francis Cemetery in Pawtucket, R.I. A celebratiao of life mass will be held Friday at 4 at the Aquinas Institute on Stockton Street. Memarial contributions may be made to the Alicia Gottlieb Camp Fund care of the family.

John I. Taylor, 91, of Palmetto, Fla., died May 31 in Manatee Memorial Hospital in Brandenton, Fla. Born in Woodchurch, England, he was a longtime Princeton resident before he moved to Florida in 1968.

Mr. Taylor was a self-employed farmer and also for a time managed the Nassau Tavern. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and a charter member of Elks Lodge No. 1534 of Great Neck, L.I.

Husband of the late Helen G. Taylor, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Helen Nickerson of Charlestoo, W. Va.; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Florence O'Conner Taylor of Florida, formerly of Princeton; three grandchildren

BUSINESS In Princeton

BANK REFUSED

By Township Zoning Board. Princeton Bank and Trust has been denied permission to build a drive-in bank in the northern part of the Princeton Shopping Center. The Township Zoning Board unanimously denied the request at its meeting last Wednesday.

Neighbors from a wide radius of surrounding streets presented a petition of 130 names protesting the new bank. It is P.B. & T.'s second request. The bank had previously asked permission to build a drive-in on the southern side of the shopping complex.

In other business, the Zoning Board denied to James Firestone lot area, width and setback variances for a house at 523 Snowden Lane. Gene Keller, Ridgeview Road, was given a renewal of his permission to keep a small rental house on his property.

BECOMES PARTNER

Of Nassau Printing. Dudley E. Woodbridge of 233 Carter Road has joined Nassau Printers, 12 Nassau Street, as a partner. Donald B. Wible is the founder and sole owner of the company.

A Princeton University graduate and a long-time area resident, Mr. Woodbridge will be involved primarily with the business and marketing aspects of the company. Mr. Wible, a life-long resident, will continue to manage the operations.

This is Princeton

"There is an academic freedom issue here," she said, "If a board wants to get rid of someone, tenure is no protection. It doesn't guarantee jobs."

Dr. Vieland said her legal fees in fighting the board's tenure action have been around $5,000. She added that although the favorable decision doesn't mention her back pay, she "assumes" it will be forthcoming. it amounts to about $7,000, she said.

VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT

For Youth Services Program. The Youth Services Program of the Princeton Chapter of the American Red Cross is conducting its annual drive for summer volunteers. Young people between the ages of 13 and 18 are being sought to fill volunteer positions in agencies and institutions located throughout the Princeton area, including Princeton Junction, Hightstown, Lawrenceville, Skillman, Princeton and Trenton.

Positions are available for those interested in working at camps for emotionally and mentally impaired persons, nursing homes, day care centers, rehabilitation centers, hospitals and business offices. Transportation may be arranged, in some cases, to volunteer assignments.

Schedules are arranged at the convenience of the volunteer, with consideration to the needs of the institutions involved. A minimum of four hours a week is required and time is allowed for vacation schedules.

Those interested in obtaining more information about the summer program should call MaryAnn Fazio at the Princeton Red Cross, 924-2404, weekdays.

YOUTH AND EXPERIENCE

a rare combination

YOUTH means freedom from personal and professional commitments, giving the time and energy to do the job right. It means not pretending to know everything, but seeking the solutions that are best for everyone.

EXPERIENCE means an understanding of our problems and how we try to deal with them. It comes indirectly from growing up surrounded by parents and friends active in our community and directly from serving as an Administrative Intern at Borough Hall. This local experience combined with extensive travel in 48 states and 7 foreign countries brings an understanding of the ideas and needs of people of all ages and backgrounds.

Give a young, native Princetonian a chance to serve the home town he loves.

HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK

and all the charm and nostalgia that goes with one built in the early part of this century! Set off by towering trees and established shrubbery, this solidly built four bedroom stucco home is a short distance from Princeton, conveniently near train commutation to New York. A neat location!

Almost classic in its balanced design, it features a welcoming entry hall flanked on one side by a large living room running the depth of the house, with fireplace and adjoining sun porch, on the other by a gracious dining room that opens to a breezy screened porch. Efficient kitchen, powder room and breakfast or laundry room complete the first floor.

But the appeal of this house is not in such basic statistics, rather in the light and space that comes with high ceilings, generous rooms, solid, old fashioned plaster walls, interesting woodwork, and dark toned polished floors. There is even an extra — a quaint, "eavesy" study or sewing room tucked away among those four second floor bedrooms.

A separate two car garage, slate roofed like the house, is set at the back of the pretty and unbelievable private grounds. Offered for late September occupancy at just $69,900

BEECHES AND BIRCHES

on a wooded five plus acre lot in nearby South Brunswick township. Reached by a winding country road, with many attractive homes as neighbors, it offers seclusion and privacy. Here is an opportunity to build your dream house in a convenient rural area. Offered, by LIGHT at $35,000

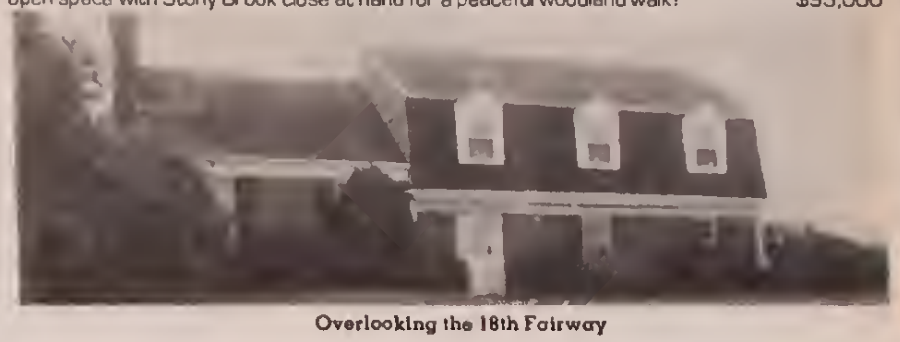
Near Stony Brook in Princeton's Western Section

Situated on a beautiful hillside overlooking Stony Brook - a lovely colonial multi-level with many fine features. Inside there's a spacious light living room with raised hearth fireplace for entertaining on a grand scale, a cheerful dining room, and a delightful eat-in kitchen with pine cabinets in the colonial tradition. Just a few steps away, a rustic knotty pine family room and a downstairs powder room and laundry room. Upstairs there are three cheerful and roomy bedrooms and one and a half baths. Tastefully decorated throughout, and overlooking natural open space with Stony Brook close at hand for a peaceful woodland walk! $93,000



Overlooking the 18th Fairway

This magnificent colonial multi-level overlooks the 18th fairway of a luxurious golf course that has great recreational facilities for the entire family. Inside, there's a formal flagstone foyer, generous living room with fireplace, a separate dining room with chair rail, a family room with wet bar, and a spacious eat-in kitchen with laundry room nearby. Upstairs are four comfortable bedrooms and two full baths. Come out to the countryside near the golf course and enjoy an evening breeze on the private brick patio with gold fish pond. You'll be glad you came to see this one, and you may decide to stay. Available through Firestone Real Estate at $89,500

Extraordinary Bi-level Just North of Princeton

This exceptionally spacious home is nestled in a friendly neighborhood in Montgomery Township just north of Princeton. Inside is a large formal living room, dining room, and modern kitchen, with three comfortable family bedrooms and two full baths. On another level is a fourth guest bedroom, a large family room with built-in bookcases, and laundry, powder room, and full double garage and workshop facilities. New to the market and priced to sell at $59,900

Contemporary Rancher Near Rocky Hill

This tastefully designed Montgomery rancher is set amid magnificent plantings all around that add to its privacy and charm. From the living room with fireplace to the dining room and master suite with cathedral ceiling, there is a definite contemporary flair for openness and simplicity. There is also a neat flagstone-floored study tucked away at one end of the house, and a second and third bedroom at the other end. The view across field and mountain from the large flagstone patio in the rear of this home is reason enough to buy, but come see for yourself a different kind of contemporary ranch unlike any you've seen. Available now through Firestone Real Estate at $62,500

Yes! You Can Afford to Live in Princeton

This lovely older townhouse has just come on the market. Inside is a large living room with fireplace, a formal dining room, a completely modern eat-in kitchen and two full-size bedrooms and a full bath. King's Grant is the Exclusive Local Representative for Homerica, The Nation's Leading Home-Finding Service

PRINCETON BOROUGH

Here is a century old frame house of spacious proportions in the classic tradition. There is over an acre of formal old-fashioned gardens, boxwood and roses. The panelled entry opens to reception hall with a magnificent staircase, unusually generously sized drawing room, dining room and quite special library. Above are six bedrooms and three and a half baths. There are additionally many features seldom found in todays construction, airy high ceilinged rooms, plaster walls, three car garage, rear patio with barbeque pit and handsome doric-columned porte-cochere. The owner is asking $375,000 for this unusual town property.

PRINCETON TOWNSHIP RENTAL

An excellent house on a beautifully wooded half acre. This property is available by the year, starting September first. Handsomely furnished, the house offers living room with fireplace, dining, family room, kitchen, screened porch, three bedrooms and two baths. $550 per month

OFFICE SPACE ON NASSAU STREET

King's Grant offers 5400 square feet of prime office space in the center of town, completely modernized and centrally air conditioned.

HOPEWELL TOWNSHIP

On a handsome acre and a half this traditional brick and frame house is just being completed for summer occupancy. The central entrance foyer is spacious, opening into formal living and dining rooms and informal country kitchen. A family playroom with fireplace and a private study are two more excellent features of this desirable new house. There are 5 bedrooms and 2½ baths. Now available thru King's Grant at $149,500

PRINCETON TOWNSHIP

Here are ten acres of meadows and woods surrounding this lovely Colonial country house. Family rooms include living, dining and gourmet kitchen, three bedrooms and two and a half baths. Then below, overlooking the terrace and pool is a superb guest suite or crafts studio. This property is in handsomely maintained condition throughout. The owner is asking $260,000

WEST WINDSOR

An unusual late 19th Century house with the charm and spacious high-ceiling rooms of this bygone year. The kitchen is equipped for gourmet entertaining. There are four bedrooms and two full baths in this uncommon offering. Now at $69,900

COUNTRY PROPERTIES

PRINCETON TOWNSHIP

King's Grant is pleased to offer over 9 acres of wooded land, high and dry overlooking a beautiful residential area. This is an investment opportunity almost unique in Princeton's Township. The owner is asking $75,000

HOPEWELL TOWNSHIP

Here are over seventy acres of superb Central New Jersey farmland within minutes of Princeton. $187,500

HUNTERDON COUNTY

9.91 acres of level, handsomely wooded land with babbling brook. The area is zoned for 3 acre residential properties. $15,000

HOPEWELL BOROUGH

Right in town on a half acre of handsomely landscaped property. The house is turn-of-the-century style, with the high ceilings and cool spaciousness of this bygone era. A real rocking chair porch fronts this old-fashioned but well maintained frame house. Living, dining, study, country kitchen, three bedrooms and two baths. $64,000

BETTER THAN NEW

This one and a half year old colonial has weathered the shakedown cruise — all systems go. Living room, dining room, family room with fireplace, big kitchen, laundry-mud room combination and powder room — there are four bedrooms and two baths on the spacious second floor. The owners have added a great, screened porch, storms and screens, ceramic tile in the center hall, cove mouldings in the main rooms and central air conditioning. A terrific, better than new house in Lawrenceville. $92,500

BATTLE ROAD!! Down a tree lined tunnel near the Institute, on an estate-type lot sits a big cozy house full of surprises. Five bedrooms, four baths, two family rooms (and a den), two fireplaces, two possible rental wings and many new features. New plumbing and wiring, new baseboard heat (4-zone), new hot water heater, new carpets, newly-redone hardwood floors by Kaminsky. The working part of the kitchen (next to the cathedral ceilinged eat-in area) has a professional gas range with six burners, two giant ovens, a griddle and a broiler. The big step down family room with chestnut beams, panelling and fireplace is old fashioned comfort. The big back porch overlooks a spacious old time back yard. A very up to date home with the best of the good old days built in. Proudly offered at $135,000 for a quick sale!

PROBABLY THE FINEST HOME ON WOODHOLLOW

A beautifully elegant Thompson Colonial, serene and wooded, only five years old, not five minutes from train station to N.Y.C. or Phila. in West Windsor. 4 or 5 bedrooms (the fifth on first floor with bath optional library or bedroom), foyer, formal dining room with chairrail, 18 x 12 living room with black slate fireplace and built-in bookshelves, modern kiichen with plate rack and marble cutting board-counter, eat-in area. Two steps down to spacious, cozy "keeping-room" with wall-length old brick raised hearth and sliding Thermopane doors to oasis-like flagstone patio. Four bedrooms upstairs, double closets, the master bedroom 17 x 11. Extra utility room. $97,500. ANOTHER Hopewell Valley Builder's Beauty!

A VERITABLE MOUNTAIN HIDEAWAY IN PRINCETON! Privacy and charm pervade this unusual chalet! Set in dense trees and well off the road with a prize-winning Sylvan pool the center of attention! Three bedrooms, three baths, living room with fireplace, dining room, den, modern kitchen, family room and even a two-car garage! It's truly outstanding. $117,500

A SUPERB OFFERING ... WINFIELD DRIVE ... one of Hunt & Augustine's most impressive colonials ... on almost three acres of prime Princeton land .. with all city utilities, and just a short jog to town! Perfect center hall colonial with gracious living room and fireplace, dining room with chairrail, panelled family room with fireplace, jalousied sun room leading to an inviting deck in the yard, and a warm, spacious kitchen with breakfast area and utility room ... all to complete the first floor! Two master suites with full baths, and three other bedrooms and a hall bath are upstairs. Of course, there is a large attic and basement, with a two-car garage and central air conditioning. More to be sure, but please call for an appointment to see this exceptional house. $185,000

IS BUILDING THIS SPECIAL HOUSE FOR YOU!

A sturdily constructed custom detailed house awaits you on 1.7 acres of land in Montgomery Township. Situated on a road with all the charm of the countryside, yet minutes away from Princeton, shopping, schools and the train. Entrance foyer, living room with fireplace & a raised hearth, sliding doors to the terrace and a lovely view of the surrounding countryside, dining room, kitchen with eat-in area and all the brightness one could wish for, two bedrooms with hall bath, master bedroom with bath, oodles of closets, plentiful storage, a lower level with a family room w/fireplace, laundry room, half bath, and a two car garage. For total enjoyment be the first owner of this gem of a house.
$78,000

HOW ABOUT THREE BEDROOMS ON THE CANAL? Here is just about the neatest, most private house that you'll ever find right on the canal. It has everything – beautiful "open" Florida room, living room with fireplace, lovely dining room and kitchen, three bedrooms and two full baths. Even a two-car garage. And there's extra land available, too. This nifty cottage is the last house on the end of Canal Road. Like to fish, canoe, or just enjoy the beautiful peace and quiet. This is for you. $85,000

IF JACK HAD HIS WAY, HE'D LIVE ON JILL LANE! A house that would sell for much more right in Princeton ... a centrally air-conditioned two-story colonial split, with four bedrooms and two full baths. A grass-papered den or TV room, carpeted formal living room and an expanded dining room with Italian marble floor! That's not all ... a Hollywood kitchen with entertaining island-three sinks, fabulous built-ins, indirect lighting, double ovens, and much much more. Come see the patio overlooking the Sylvan pool. Just a shade under $60,000

Sylvan Friedman Will Retire after 28 Years in Music at PHS But Summer School He Founded Will Continue in New Location

It's an orchestra of high-school kids, the standard spring-concert kind of thing parents have been squirming through since the invention of the violin.

But at Princeton High, it's different. The baton is poised. There is that second of quiet. Then the music begins.

It's one of Handel's Concerti Grossi, perhaps, or maybe a Telemann or Purcell. The program continues.....it may be Rachmaninoff's "Vocalise" arranged for string orchestra with clarinet solo, or Persichetti's setting of T.S. Eliot's "Hollow Men," with trumpet solo, or almost certainly, a Bach like the Brandenburg Number Three.

Sylvan Friedman, of course.

"The big kick I've had is bringing good music to the kids, all these years," he says with a smile. "And 'good' music can be light music, too, and I love the good musical comedies like 'Camelot.' But today, the kids won't let me! No, indeed, all they want is the classics."

He pauses for a minute, and the smile fades.

"I deplore anyone who runs ANY kind of music into the ground -- except hard rock. I can't stand hard rock!"

IN TUNE: Violinist as well as teacher, Sylvan Friedman has been a respected member of Princeton's musical community for 28 years. This summer, he will celebrate the 25th anniversary of his summer music school for children and he will also retire from the Princeton schools. Retirement? Every morning means violin practice.

School is 25 Years Old. Sylvan Friedman is retiring this year. He has taught instrumental music to Princeton kids for 28 years. But he's celebrating, too, because this will be the 25th anniversary of his summer music school and he has no intention of retiring from that.

Classes start June 23 and will run for five weeks. You can be a beginner or an advanced student. You can even be an adult -- he's had summer students in their 30s and beyond.

This silver summer for Sylvan almost didn't make it. Every summer, these music school classes have been held in the high school. But one way of holding the budget tight this tight year is to seal up the school buildings once they have been cleaned out. With regret, the school system informed Mr. Friedman that the summer school was tuned out.

"We tried the Methodists first, and they were interested, but then we learned that All Saints would be available -- the Rev. Orley Swartzentruber has had kids in my classes -- so we're going to be there. It's wonderful: plenty of parking, and separate classrooms so we can have brass in one wing and strings in a separate wing."

Staff is Intact. Summer classes were started to give a boost to young musicians in the Princeton school system. Daily, individualized instruction is almost like supervised practice, Mr. Friedman explains, and only in the last two weeks do the students apply what they've learned, in what Mr. Friedman calls "fast-and-furious training", to performance in small ensembles.

Teachers who are professionals in woodwinds, brass and strings assure top-flight instruction. "I had dismissed my staff, after the schools closed me out, but I

HOT AIR IN THE ATTIC WASTES AMERICA'S ENERGY AND COSTS YOU MONEY

During the summer months temperatures in the attic can reach as high as 150 degrees. This blanket of heat can penetrate through the best ceiling insulation into the living area below and burden the air conditioning or make a building that is not air conditioned hot and uncomfortable. Ceiling insulation at best is a deterrent to heat, not a barrier.

IT'S 1938: You can tell by the pin-striped, double-breasted suit. It's "Mugs Money," Triangle's 1976 show, brazenly disregarding the Bicentennial and concentrating instead on another side of the American scene — gangsterland. These partners in crime are David McAllis, Paul Dengel, Clayton Platt and Chad Restum. They're in Chicago — where else? — in the post-prohibition years and are up to no good. It's returning to McCarter this Friday and Saturday.

News Of The THEATRES

CAREFUL!

"Mugs Money" is in Town. Back again, and probably up to his old nefarious tricks, "Mugs Money" will show up at McCarter this Friday and Saturday, at 8:30. It's Triangle Club's 87th annual show and the first time since 1972 that Triangle has had a real musical comedy with a real, honest-to-goodness book.

"Mugs Money" -- whose four earlier performances were sold out -- is the tale of a tale of a country boy who outwits the city mob and wins the girl whose father controls both the mob and the mayoralty race.

TOWN TOPICS' reviewer found "Sobriety Slide" the show-stopper, and deservedly so. Other numbers singled out are "Highly Organized Crime" -- executed with papier-mache mobsters -- "Yankee Dixie" – a 70-year-old revival from Triangles's "Tabasco Dixie" of 1906 – and, of course, The Stockyard Girls.

FOUR AT INTIME

For Summer Season. The summer season is in the wings ready to go on at Murray Theatre on the University campus, Summer Intime has announced a season of four plays by its regular summer company and a couple of off-Broadway productions by other actors.

Noel Coward's "Fallen Angels" will launch the regular season, followed by Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid," the New York love story "Two for the Seesaw" and William Inge's "Picnic."

This weekend, Summer Intime will continue "Tales of Our Fathers," an evening of short plays dramatizing the cultural heritage of the Jews. It will be given this Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. by the actors of the Brighton Lights Jewish Theatre Company, a group of Princeton students and graduates who will perform later this summer in the Brighton Beach section of Brooklyn.

The weekend of June 17, 18 and 19, Summer Intime will present "The Big Reward," which played -- of all places -- the theatre of the Riverside Church in New York, enjoying full houses all the way. "The Big Reward" was written by Brian O'Connor founder of the New Moon Theatre Company, and Rosemary Foley, a former member of the Second City Company in Chicago. "The Big Reward" combines cabaret-style music with group improvisation.

TRYOUTS SCHEDULED

For First Musicals. Tryouts for the first two productions of Theatre-By-The-Lake's fourth season on the Peddie School campus have been announced.

Tryouts for "Godspell" will take place Sunday and Monday at 7 in Geiger-Reeves Hall, for production dates of July 22, 23 and 24. These will be followed by auditions for "South Pacific" on Wednesday and Thursday, although the production dates July 8, 9 and 10, will precede those for "Godspell."

Those trying out for either show may bring a song which they have prepared and a resume and photo if desired. The directors of "Godspell" will be Thomas Cardea and Francis A. Towne, while Jeffrey R. Holcombe and Milton J. Richey will direct "South Pacific." Rehearsals will be held weekday evenings from 7 until 10 for four weeks.

Mr. Holcombe and Mr. Towne, co-artistic directors, are also looking for backstage crew for sets, lights, props and publicity. If interested, report at tryouts or call one of the artistic directors.

PLAYHOUSE

The Missouri Breaks. Two old pros have a good time in this western saga directed by Arthur Penn. Marlon Brando is a professional killer hired to exterminate a band of professional horse thieves led by Jack Nicholson.

GARDEN

Mother, Jugs and Speed. A zany, comedy-adventure about a rundown private ambulance service in Los Angeles starring Bill Cosby, Raquel Welch, Harvey Keitel and Dick Butkus. The latter was once a linebacker of the Chicago Bears.

ERIC LAWRENCEVILLE

Embryo. An off-beat drama in which a doctor's experiments in fetal research considers the possibility of pre-natal life outside the womb. Rock Hudson has the lead role.

SHEPHERD RETURNS

For Alexander Hall Concert. The humorist Jean Shepherd will return for his annual concert Friday at 8 in Alexander Hall. His appearance is sponsored by WPRB-FM, the student-operated radio station.

Mr. Shepherd is more than just a comedian; he is a storyteller, a modern day Mark Twain. His monologue Friday is likely to include anything from boyhood experiences in Indiana to the New York left. He demonstrates his tale-telling ability nightly on New York's WOR.

Tickets at $3.50 for his Princeton appearance are available at the University Store, daily until 4:30. All seats are reserved. Remaining seats will be sold at the door.

THEATRE TRIP SET

For Senior Citizens. The Princeton Recreation Department is sponsoring a trip on Thursday, June 17 to the Papermill Playhouse to see Ann Miller in "Panama Hattie". The program is open to all residents 60 years of age and over.

The cost is $3.75 and the bus will depart from the Harrison Street Fire House at 12:15 p.m. For reservations and information, please call the Recreation Office at 921-9480.

The recreation department is also sponsoring free classes in pencil sketching for older adults which will begin on Monday, June 7 at 10. The class will meet Monday and Wednesday at Marquand Park for four weeks.

Each session will run one hour with paper and chairs provided. To register please call 921-9480.

BAND SHOW SET

At High School. The PHS Studio Band will present its Big Band Stage Show Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30 in the high school auditorium. As in the past, the show is patterned after shows staged by the big name bands of the 30's and 40's at the Paramount and Apollo theatres.

The Studio Band has acquired many arrangements which have been augmented and re - scored by Jack Horner, the band director, to fit this year's band. In addition, Randy Purcell, the lead trombonist, composer, and arranger for the Maynard Ferguson band, has provided a number of special arrangements for this year's state show, such as "The Way We Were," "Keepin' It Together" and "I'll Just Do My Song."

Jazz soloists will include Steve Redfield, trumpet; Phil LaBar, trumpet and flugelhorn; Andrew Garman, trombone; Jon Negus, alto and baritone sax; Eddie Eicher, drums; and Geof Becker, guitar. The soloist will be Dennis Alexander who has been singing professionally for several years.

Admission is $2 for adults, $1 for students (50 cents in advance), available from band members or in the main office of the school in advance. Seating is limited and advance reservations are recommended. Proceeds will be used to buy new band uniforms as the present ones date back 15 years.

"MARIETTA" OPERA SET

By Opera Association. The famous comic opera, "Naughty Marietta," with Pamela Boodley, of Trenton and Eleanor Clark, of New York City sharing the flamboyant title role, will open at Washington Crossing Theatre for six performances beginning June 17- 19 and June 24 - 26, as a presentation by the Princeton Opera Association

Also starring will be John Woodard, of Trenton and Robert Mitchell, of Elizabeth, in the role of Captain Dick Warrington, the early American frontiersman who wins the heart and hand of Marietta to the tune of such haunting Victor Herbert melodies as "I'm Falling in Love With Someone" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

Their adventures in gay New Orleans in the late 18th century, when Louisiana was still French, include brushes with a dashing pirate known as Bras Pique, a slave auction, King Louis XVI's soldiers, the charming fantasy - world of a marionette theatre and a brilliant masked ball.

This production is being directed by Igor Chichagov as musical director and Harold Hogstrom of Morrisville, Pa., as stage director, with a chorus of 20 members. Set designer is Elizabeth Meredith of Hopewell, costumes have been coordinated by Marilyn Shanfield of Princeton and the dances choreographed by Renita D'Ippolito, also of Princeton.

CONCERT SUNDAY

Of Recorder and Harpsichord. A concert of music for recorder and harpsichord will be presented Sunday at 2:30 at the Woolworth Center on the University campus by Judy Linsenberg, recorder, and Edward Parmentier, harpsichord.

Miss Linsenberg, a junior, has studied with Bernard Karnis in New York and spent last year studying recorder and oboe at the Royal Conservatory in the Hague, Holland. Mr. Parmentier, a fourth year graduate student in musicology, has studied with Albert Fuller in New York and with Gustav Leonhardt in Amsterdam. He will be using a new instrument by William Dowd.

Each has given several recitals in the area. The concert will include music by Handel, Frescobaldi, Dieupart and Parcham and is free and open to the public.

Topics of the Town

got them all back," he says happily.

When Sylvan Friedman came to Princeton from the Philadelphia schools in 1948, he was assigned to the old Nassau Street Elementary and Quarry Street "Junior High" schools. There were no orchestras when he came, and hence no "feeding" for the Princeton High School Orchestra.

"We were holding a rehearsal one day at Quarry Street -- I can still remember it so vividly!" he laughs, "Lou Richards -- he was my boss -- was shocked! Why, we had a 55-piece orchestra there! He ran and got B. Woodhull Davis -- he was superintendent then, you remember -- to come and see! Then we had a fifth-grade orchestra at Nassau Street, too."

Music To His Ears. For 14 years, he taught small musicians how to play. The squeak of the unfamiliar violin and the fanfare of an uncertain trumpet were music to his ears, day in and day out.

"I never minded hearing beginners play the violin," he says. "I love to hear a kid practice."

Sylvan Friedman is himself a violinist. He often plays in quartets and ensembles and for some years was in the Princeton Symphony.

In 1962, he moved to the high school as Mr. Richards' successor. All instrumental lessons -- in the string department -- conducting the orchestra, years as department chairman for instrumental music, a semester as head of the creative arts department -- busy times. Recently, part-time volunteer teaching at the Middle School.

And always with the quality of music uppermost in his mind.

"I was never one for fads," he says, "and I remember a time I took the orchestra to a Glassboro music-teachers' clinic. Well, there was a long, very dull session explaining some new teaching technique and when it finally was our turn, we simply got up there and played Bach. Well! Do you know, teachers would stop me years later and recall that time....."

Beethoven Says It All. "We've always done things for student soloists, you know. Like the Vivaldi concertos for three or four violins, and the Beethoven First and Second piano concertos."

"Then, for the full orchestra.....well, I can recall the Stravinsky 'Berceuse' from 'Firebird' -- isn't that a lovely thing! -- and the 'Firebird' Finale, of course, and Vaughn-Williams' Concerto for String Orchestra and of course the Haydn and Mozart symphonies and Beethoven's First Symphony."

"I guess you could say Beethoven is my musical god: he said EVERYTHING."

This current academic year, Mr. Friedman has been on sabbatical and has begun to get himself back in musical shape, devoting mornings to practicing his violin, using one of the half-dozen instruments in the Friedman household.

Retirement will mean a move this summer to Rossmoor. Mr. Friedman's wife, Jean, will continue to teach at Littlebrook and commute.

But full retirement? For a man who, as a young teacher in his first small Pennsylvania mining-town school taught vocal and instrumental music, conducted orchestra and band, taught senior-sophomore-freshman English, coached dramatics and put out the school paper -- "and I loved it!" -- and for a teacher-musician who can guide young musicians through some Brahms' chamber music arranged for string ensemble.....retirement isn't going to be life in a hammock.

Mr. Friedman has resumed quartet playing and he hopes to get an ensemble together at Rossmoor. "I know a few people there who play....."

He may also go back to giving private lessons and here he smiles again, "I really love to hear a kid practice!"

IT'S NEW To Us

BARGAINS ON BOOKS

At Echo on Witherspoon Street. "Wow! How can they do this?" and "Look at the prices! What is going on in here?" are but two of the exclamations we overheard last week while browsing at the new Echo Books on Witherspoon Street.

Although discount stores are not new, this one is based on the unique concept of selling books that have been weeded from library shelves, and at a savings that often ranges from 50 to 80 percent. These are all current books in excellent condition, many of which have been read only a few times if at all.

DISCOUNT BOOKS: An avid reader himself, Jerry Hoffman has achieved the dream of many book lovers -- his own bookstore. However, Echo Books is different from most neighborhood shops, as it is founded on the unusual concept of selling current books no longer needed on the library shelves at incredible savings.

Owner Jerry Hoffman told us that these books start to appear on the market between two and five months after publication date, and that the initial discount depends on their availability. For example, "The Choirboys," currently number seven on the New York Times Best Seller List, is here at $4.29, regularly $8.95.

All Orders Filled. While this and other titles are still not plentiful (only a few come into the store each week) Mr. Hoffman says he has so far been able to fill orders for all his books within a reasonable period of time at the advertised prices. Other best-sellers currently here to some degree are "The Gemini Contenders," "The Russians," and "The Eagle Has Landed," $3.59 to $6.29.

Once they are slightly older, and thus more easily obtainable, the price drops even more. For instance, "Superships" is $2.98; "Boys from Brazil" and "Ragtime," $3.59; "The Great Train Robbery," $2.98; "Saving the Queen," $3.29; and "My Life," by Golda Meir, $4.98.

Generally these prices are reached before the book comes out in paperback, so for approximately the same price range of $1.50 to $5, you can have a hardback book to add to your permanent collection.

However, if you just can't wait a few months to have the prices drop, Echo books also has the newest best-sellers (based on the New York Times list) at a 20 percent discount. But Mr. Hoffman quickly adds, "This is more of an accommodation than anything else."

Inside ths tore, the books are shelved under major categories of fiction, sports, hobbies, health, psychology, women and non-fiction. But within these areas, there is no shelving system because Mr. Hoffman says, "There are so many nuggets here it is fun to browse, and maybe find a new book at a bargain price."

There are proximately 3,000 titles here, with about 80 new ones arriving each month. Looking around we saw "hoffa," "Dr. Steelman's 14-day Shape-Up Program," Kate Millett's "Flying," "Bob Cousy - Killer Instinct," "Chanel," "Sylvia Porter's Money Book," "All Things Bright and Beautiful," and many more.

Adding to the stock is another source of books, the overstocks and remainders of major publishers. There are neww books, many of which fall into the "coffee table" category, while others deal with crafts or projects. The current selection includes "Birds of North America," Dione Lucas' Book of French Cooking," "Creative Patchwork," "Vegetable Growing for Health and Flavor," "Tales from Shakespeare" and Z"Picasso," to name a few. Finally, a group of children's books should be arriving in the near future.

Mr. Hoffman, a retired mortgage banker who has always wanted to work a bookstore from the ground up, told us that Princeton's Echo books is only the first in a proposed chain of 15 such stores that he and his two partners have planned. Most will be in university areas and it will probably remain a small chain as the library sources provide a limited number of these books.

Located at 32 Witherspoon Street, Echo Books is open from 10 to 9 Monday through Saturday, and if this doesn't give you enough browsing time, the store is also open Sundays from 10 to 5.

JEWELRY ON DISPLAY

At H.R. Kalmus. Currently displayed in H.R. Kalmus' window on Chambers Street are pieces of Indian jewelry that have an interesting story associated with them.

Each piece is authentic and carefully labeled with the Indian's name who made it, his tribe and a description of the piece itself. More importantly, a percentage of each sale goes to this Indian and another percentage to Shari Daniels for her future health clinic.

Mrs. Daniels brought the jewelry here herself when she was invited to come to New York to lecture on midwivery. A former Princeton resident, known by her maiden name of Danagher, she hopes these sales will raise money for her health clinic, the result of her work with the Indians of the Southwest as a nurse, midwife and teacher.

Mr. Kalmus told us, "Mrs. Daniels and I worked out the prices and I understand they are less than in New York. I've never shopped for or bought Indian jewelry so I know little about it, but I do know there is a lot of fake material on the market. However, everything here is genuine."

The collection includes rings, necklaces and bracelets, priced from $18 to $176. Particularly attractive is a sterling bracelet inlaid with turquoise and coral chips and a ring of three silver rosettes set with turquoise and mother of pearl stones.

While most of the pieces are traditional, there is a whimsical Snoopy pendant with a turquoise eye and a most sophisticated sterling choker of beautiful beads and decorative pendants with translucent stones.

Mrs. Daniels also included some handwoven Navaho wedding baskets, pictures of Indian chiefs, and a few woven rugs with the jewelry. It's all at H.R. Kalmus, 6½ Chambers Street, where the hours are 10 to 6 Monday through Friday and 10 to 5 on Saturday.

APPRAISAL CLINIC SET

Along With Fete Auction. For the first time, an Appraisal Clinic will be held Friday, June 11, at the Spirited Fete Auction tent on Washington Road Field from 10 to 12 and 1 to 4. Auction Co-chairmen Lanny King and Sibyl Groff announce that the Clinic will be conducted by Lester and Robert Slatoff, who have been in the auction and appraisal business for three generations.

Any item of uncertain value in the fine arts field may be brought to the tent for appraisal. The experts will price it, and the $3 fee received will benefit the building fund of The Medical Center at Princeton.

Friday, June 11, is also the day to look over the hundreds of items collected and displayed in the tent by the committee. Sealed bids will be accepted starting at $25. Last chance for inspection and sealed bidding will be Saturday morning between 8:30 and 9.

This year a pair of live donkeys and a primitive oil painting of the Prince of Orange exemplify the variety of donations the solicitation committee has collected. There is also a large quantity of furniture including a New York Federal sideboard c. 1810; a variety of chandeliers in crystal, bronze and wrought iron; oil paintings, mink coats and patio furniture. Also silver, china, glass and other collectibles should attract the usual crowds of bidders at the Auction Tent.

SUMMER PROGRAM SET

In Industrial Arts. Princeton Day School will offer its annual six-week Summer Industrial Arts Program June 21 through July 30 for children entering grades four through eight. It is a unique opportunity to spend five mornings a week for six weeks developing skills by working with one's hands.

Robert C. Whitlock, Chairman of the Industrial Arts Department, has divided the program into three groups. Fourth graders will make projects related to light, compass reading, electricity,

SUMMER SESSION SET

At Hun School. The Hun School's five-week summer session will introduce a new course in proficiency skills at various grade levels of English, in addition to offering preview and make-up courses in mathematics and other traditional subjects.

The coeducational day and boarding program for students entering grades 7-12 will extend from June 28 to July 30. Courses will be held Monday-Friday in air-conditioned classrooms in the new Student Center.

Development of efficient study skills and a disciplined approach to academics will be taught as an integral part of each course, according to Dr. Paul R. Chesebro, Headmaster. A reading course for those seeking to reach or exceed grade level norms will be offered, as well as English as a Second Language, an English seminar, and the Proficiency in Fundamentals course.

Middle School mathematics, algebra preview and review, and plane geometry will be offered, as well as advanced mathematics courses. French, Spanish, history and science are also part of the curriculum, as are beginning and intermediate typing courses.

PEOPLE
In The News

Martha A. Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Sullivan, of 71 Independence Drive, has been elected co-captain of the Bowdoin College women's varsity lacrosse team for next year. She was the leading scorer and captain of the 1976 squad which posted a 5-3 record. She is a graduate of Princeton Day School and a junior.

Participating in a dinner and fireworks display to celebrate the completion of a 3½ year $21 million campaign at Bryn Mawr College were Doreen C. Spitzer, 659 Lake Drive, who presented a major class reunion gift for the 40th reunion year and Trudi G. Swain, of Bryn Mawr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Goheen of 1 Orchard Circle, who presented the 10th reunion gift. Mrs. Spitzer was also a campaign vice-chairman.

Other alumnae attending the recent reunion and campaign celebration were Judy S. Reeder, of 3 Herrontown Circle; Clare H. Nunes of 84 Hun Road; Merry M. Knowlton of Canal Road, Griggstown; Constance T. Fong of Allison Road; Nancy B. Gillespie of 8 Winant Road; Betsy B. Carrick of 269 Prospect Avenue; Sarah M. Frantz of 64 Battle Road; Annette R. Rudd of 91 Mercer Road; Frances F. Jones of 1041 Kingston Road; and Eleanor M. Delanoy of 62 Battle Road.

Joyce Schmidt of Belle Mead, environmental quality chairman for the Princeton Area League of Women Voters, received a United Auto Workers scholarship to attend a conference at the Reuther UAW Family Education Center in Oroway, Mich. The conference, titled "Working for Environmental and Economic Justice and Jobs", was attended by people representing labor, community action groups, senior citizens, American Indians, environmentalists, urban blacks and farmers who met to discuss how to work together for environmental quality and economic justice.

Ms. Schmidt, who is also an environmental lobbyist in Trenton for the State League of Women Voters, heard news of future alliances between labor and environmentalists in various areas such as the Toxic Substances Control Bill and the Humphrey-Hawkins Bill against in-plant pollution.

Rafael H. Sharon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sharon of 50 Deer Path, a fourth year architecture student at Cornell University, was selected to design and present a preliminary proposal for a pedestrian mall and a central business district rehabilitation plan for Caledonia, N.Y. The slide, model and drawings presentation was covered by Rochester television and newspapers, and was attended by numerous civic groups and planning boards.

The design was favorably received, and according to Caledonia's Mayor Ed Matthews, an application for federal funding is in process and after approval, full scale construction according to the design submitted will begin. Limited construction will begin immediately. Mr. Sharon is currently employed by Robert Earl Sussna, architects and planners, 20 Nassau Street.

Speaking to the annual meeting of the American Association of Advertising Agencies as the outgoing chairman, Neal W. O'Connor of 539 Kingston Road focused on the problem of hostility toward business on the part of the general public. He criticized the forthcoming public service campaign of economic education planned by the Advertising Council, and urged instead developing credibility by straightforwardness and telling the truth "to the best of our knowledge." Mr. O'Connor is chairman of the executive committee of N.W. Ayer ABH International in New York.

Margaret Ann Young, retiring headmistress of Chapin School on Princeton Pike, has been named head of the junior school, grades K through 5, at Chestnut Hill Academy in Philadelphia, Pa., effective July 1. Mrs. Young was at Chapin for 15 years, teaching history and mathematics for the first seven and as headmistress for the past eight.

Her husband, Harrison H. Young Jr., is a patent attorney in the patent department of FMC which moved last August from New York.

PROJECTS ON DISPLAY By Sharon Students. The 22nd year at the Sharon Studio is ending with an exhibit at the Jewish Center, 435 Nassau Street. It will include the work of 30 children between 5 and 11 and consists of several hundred projects in metal, stone, ceramics, plastics, mosaics, tile tables, acrylic and water color paintings.

The children are students of Miss Naomi Sharon, who follows a progressive approach, never using a pattern but encouraging individual creativity. Opening night will be Monday from 7 to 9:30, and the free exhibit will remain open to the public Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 10 to 8. School classes are invited to visit, and a guided tour may be arranged by calling Miss Sharon at 921-6156.

SUSAN HEIDERE: With fan mobile she made as a student at the Sharon Studio.

The children whose work will be displayed are Susan Heidere, Jocelyn Usiskin, Margaret Riddle, Kathy McGee, Peter Gager, Jennifer Lindabury, Alexis Hagadorn, Peter Wisnovsky, Dorothy Ann Graskamp, Jay Kavanogh, Jonathan Alberts, Jonathan O'Brian, Tonya and Leslie Elmore, David Bryant, Matthew, Jamie and Kathy Herring, Sheila Hickie, Saul Ferris, McHenry Schafer, Ellen Ross, David Litt, Eduardo Kohn, Adrian Treves, Pamela Elmes, Sarah Garvey, Josie Robins, Matthew Silverstein, Olivia Banner, Lindsey Forsythe, Jon Peter Baker, Suzanne Langridge and Jon Cummings.

News Of Clubs and Organizations

The Newcomers Club of the YWCA will hold a spring luncheon at the Present Day Club, Thursday, June 10. Carmel Martin, hospitality chairman, is in charge of arrangements, assisted by Pat Falk and Penny Bashore.

The event will begin at 11:30 with a punch hour followed by the luncheon at 12:30. The menu includes chilled wine and a chicken salad platter. Election and installation of officers for the 1976 term will be held, and tribute will be paid to the graduating members. Members of the Oil Painting interest group will have on display samples of their work.

The Lawrence Township Senior Citizens Club 2 will take a trip to the Amish Country on Tuesday. The bus will leave promptly at 8:15 from the Lawrence Shopping Center. The next meeting will be June 22.

The Business and Professional Women's Club will meet Monday at 6:30 at the First National Bank of Central Jersey, Rocky Hill. New officers will be installed, and Princeton High School recipients of the annual BPW scholarship awards will be presented. A covered dish supper will be served, and all members and their guests are invited.

At the Annual Wine Tasting Party held at the Shriner's Club, Princeton, James Reid announced the officers of the Princeton Ski Club for the coming season. They include, president, Toby B. Tuckman of Kendall Park; vice-president, Steve Lipp of Hopewell; treasurer, Jim Golis of Pennington; secretaries, Sarah Engler of Princeton Junction and Don Griffin of Princeton.

Board Members for the coming year are Reid, Don Channin, Bob Dawson, Charlie Golcheski, Shirley High, Pat Matthews and Janet Thompson. Phyllis Brannin was appointed winter trip chairman.

At the annual meeting of the MIT Club the following officers were elected: president, Leonard Newton; vice-president for programs, Alphonse Carona; vice-president for membership, John Gayland; vice-president for communications, Harry Laventhal; secretary, Ronald Enstrom; treasurer, Marie Johnson, and assistant treasurer, Scott Keneman.

Sleep is a natural phenomenon common to all animal life. It is a position on the scale of consciousness, a periodic interruption of wakeful hours. If left to his own choosing, scientists have proved, the healthy human adult under normal conditions will sleep between seven and eight hours each night. When he has all the sleep necessary for a refreshed body, he will awaken slowly and naturally without mechanical aids. The average normal adult sleeps best in a bed to which he is accustomed and which is comfortable.

Just call - that's all - and FORER PHARMACY, 160 Witherspoon will do all the rest. Rely on our competent staff to give you prompt, courteous service at all times. We will bill all medicare charges directly. Open daily from 9 to 9 and Sundays from 9 to 3. Phone 921-7287.

to the board of trustees; president, Mrs. Robert Geddes; vice-president, Mrs. Frederick Curvy; treasurer, Donald Black; secretary, Mrs. Michael Epstein; and members, the Rev. Blan Aldridge, Mark Neimeiser, and Roger Kirkpatrick.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Lions Club will hold its final dinner meeting Monday at 6:30 at the Nassau Inn. Eric Mihan, president of the Lions Club, will install new officers for 1976-77, Lee Neiner, president; Eleanor Nelson, vice-president; Irma Mihan, treasurer; and Mildred Lehnert, secretary.

A musical program saluting the country's 200th birthday will be presented by guest Cathy Ahlbach with members Lee Neiner, Eleanor Nelson, Lorraine Arcaro and Jean Katen participating.

The Drop-In-Lounge at the Bet-Am will meet Monday promptly at 12:45 at the Bet-Am, next to the Jewish Center, 435 Nassau Street. Rabbi Melvin Glatt will give a short talk preceding the meeting.

The program will consist of games and a card party. Bridge, Mah Jong, canasta and other card games, bingo and scrabble will be arranged as desired and tea and dessert will be served. Call Edith Levine, 924-1579, for bridge reservations, and Lillian Greenberg, 924-9722, for other reservations, stating what activity you will participate in.

Officers of the Princeton University League for the 1976-77 academic year were named at the League's annual meeting held recently.

Continuing as League president for her second year is Mrs. Donald Grove, 191 Riverside Drive. She will complete the second half of her term as chief executive of the social and service organization for women of the University community.

Others on the executive committee are: Mrs. William Bowen, chairman; Mrs. David Harrje, first vice-president; Mrs. Howard Ende, second vice-president; Mrs. Robert Bratzler, third vice-president; Mrs. Robert Durkee, recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph Cecchi, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Wickenheiser, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Joseph Smagorinsky, membership secretary.

Other League board members serving as officers and committee chairpersons are: Mrs. Eberhard Wachsen, assistant corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Liu, assistant membership secretary; Mrs. Theodore Ziolkowski, Art Museum volunteers; Mrs. Robert Naumann, constitution and by-laws; Mrs. Herbert Bailey, dance; Mrs. Alexander Vincent, editorial; Mrs. John Suppe, English conversation; and Mrs. Chester Rapkin, furniture exchange.

Also, Mrs. Hubert Quackenbush, Job Roster; Mrs. Robert Jahn, memorial funds; Mrs. Kenn Clark, newcomers; Mrs. Ernesto Mazzucato, nominating; Mrs. William Reed, office volunteers; Mrs. James Steeg, public relations; Mrs. Norman Ryder, refreshments; Mrs. Robert Scanlan, trip coordinator; Mrs. Samuel Atkins, Women from Overseas, and Mrs. Edward Cox, League representative to the Nursery School.

The American Association of Retired Persons, will hold its annual picnic for members on Thursday, June 10, at noon at the Shriner's Club on River Road. This will be the last of this year's activities until September.

Mrs. Leonard Johnson of 56 Greenhouse Drive has been elected first vice-president of the Women's Branch of The New Jersey Historical Society.

She also will serve as program chairman for the organization, and is planning a series of educational and social events for 1976-77. The Women's Branch schedule annually includes several field trips and outings to historical sites in New Jersey, as well as programs held at the Society's headquarters in Newark.

flight, printing, candlemaking, modelmaking, and woodworking.

Fifth and sixth graders will make projects related to elementary surveying and engineering, model rocketry and architecture, as well as projects of their choice in woodworking, metalworking and plastics. Seventh and eighth graders will construct a model house and model car, gliders, and other projects in wood and metal.

It is assumed that most girls and boys will want to attend the full six-week program, but it will also be possible for children going away to attend for a part of the time. The fee for the course is $200 for six weeks, $110 for three weeks and $40 for a single week. Registration and payment of $40 towards tuition is requested by June 7 in order to assist in preparations.

Make check payable to Princeton Day School and send together with child's name, grade entering and weeks attending to Robert Whitlock, Industrial Arts Department, Princeton Day School, The Great Road. For further information or references call Mr. Whitlock at 924-6700, ext. 43.

Lions Plan Dinner Ball

The West Windsor Lions Club will sponsor a Township Bicentennial Dinner Ball July 3 at Princeton Country Club on Route 1. It will precede the all-day parade and picnic planned for the township Bicentennial Committee. Ed DiPolvere has been named chairman.

Dinner with a colonial menu will begin at 7; dress will be optional, but colonial dress is encouraged, and there will be dancing from 9 until 1 to the music of Stan Maze and his Ambassadors. There will be souvenirs and door prizes.

STUDY AND CAMPING

Offered by Rambling Pines. Rambling Pines Day Camp is offering a unique academic-camping program which will enable youngsters in need of academic help to also enjoy a complete camping experience.

The major academic areas of concentration are reading, writing, arithmetic, speech, language and perceptual-motor training.

Some of the highlights of the camping activities are fishing, Red Cross certified swimming instruction, sports, art, arts and crafts, music, and nature study.

Youngsters not in need of academic help may enroll in a full day camping program on the grounds of Rambling Pines on Route 518 in Hopewell.

Strong emphasis is placed on skill development in both camping and academics. Written reports will be sent to parents at the end of each three-week period detailing progress in all areas. The program is designed for both pre-school and school age youngsters. For further information, call 924-9713 or 466-1211.

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Brought to you

By John Bernard

What are the most runs ever scored by one team in one big league baseball game? ... The record is 36, by the Cubs in a game in 1897.

In this bicentennial year, did you ever realize how short a time in our history that today's major sports have been in existence ... For instance, just 100 years ago, in 1876, there was NO pro football; college football was played by only a few schools; there were NO golf courses in the U.S.; tennis was practically unknown; there was no basketball or hockey; the National League in baseball was in its first year, and the American League was not yet formed ... Thus, 100 years ago today the National League in baseball was the only pro sports league in America!

Here's one that may surprise you ... In big league history, only 2 pitchers struck out over 3,000 batters in their careers – and few fans can quickly guess which 2 pitchers did it ... It wasn't Sandy Koufax or Bob Feller or Cy Young or some other pitchers you might think of first ... The only 2 to strike out more than 3,000 batters were Walter Johnson and Bob Gibson.

I bet you didn't know ... that without loss of income insurance you might be forced into personal bankruptcy.

Depressed State of Princeton Football Faces Major Problem in Graduation of 26 Lettermen

It has been six years since a Princeton football team won more games than it lost, as Princeton seniors, who played on teams that managed victory in just nine of their 27 games can tell you. Unfortunately for Tiger fans, whose memories of the bright decade of the 60s have been sustaining them ever since, it may be that the Class of 1976 will take with it when it graduates Tuesday enough ability so that next fall's team will also find itself struggling to keep the .500 mark in sight.

When the Orange and Black reported last August for preseason practice, there were 30 seniors on the squad By the time the last game on the schedule with Dartmouth, on the third Saturday in November, had been played, ten of them had either finished out their careers with the Varsity B team or had been forced out of football by injuries.

Of the remaining 20, no less than 14 had starting positions on the twn platoons, and if each platoon is increased in number to 12, to include the punting and placekicking specialists, the number of regulars about to receive their diplomas increases to 16. With no intention to write a premature ohituary for next fall's Tigers, this is nonetheless a monumental replacement problem for a team that won only one of its last six games while compiling a 4-5 record.

On offense, six starters will graduate, including three fourths of the backfield. Defensively, Princeton had eight seniors in starting positions, at one time or another during the season, so that inexperience on both sides of the line will be as widespread as on any Ivy League entry.

The early portion of the schedule will, in fact, be the Tigers' greatest asset. Two of their first three league opponents, Cornell and Columbia, should be the weakest Ivy teams they will meet.

By positions, these are the members of the Class of 1976 whose departure from the football scene will create the biggest replacement problems for Coach Bob Casciola and his staff:

Ends: Both starters on the defensive unit, three-year letterman Aaron Satterthwaite and Mark Faurie, and Keven Gropp, a tnlented split end. Satterthwaite's contribution to Princeton football was highly unusual in that he started all but the first game of his varsity career despite the fact that he did not play as a freshman. Injuries hampered Faurie during the first half of his varsity playing time but he broke into the starting lineup toward the end of his junior season and was a 1975 regular. Gropp fractured his wrist in a pre-season scrimmage against Morgan State but returned after mid-season and will also be thoroughly missed.

Tackles: The only position which graduation losses will treat lightly. Of the four starters on the two platoons, Mark Wright, right tackle on offense, is the lone senior. He played consistent football of the unsung variety and made his top contributions during his final year. Others at the position in the Class of '76 were Vern Sedlacek and Bill Patterson.

Guards: Warren Gorrell and Joe Zajac, both three-year lettermen, will take a world of experience with them from the offensive line. Voted the most valuable player on his team as a freshman, Gorrell saw constant reserve action at center in his sophomore year, was the regular there until injured toward the end of his junior year and then was converted to a capable guard when a vacancy developed at that position before the 1975 season began. Zajac broke into the starting lineup as a sophomore and was a regular throughout his final two seasons. Also graduating will be Dan McGillycuddy, who earned a letter last fall in a reserve capacity.

Centers: None.

Quarterbacks: Ron Beible, who started all but the first game of his varsity career, and played so much that he eventually came to hold most of the major passing records in the Princeton book. One of the very few three-year quarterbacks in Princeton history, he will be succeeded by one of several candidates for the job, none of whom has ever thrown a pass in varsity competition. Topping the Tigers' numerous other problems, that spells out all too succinctly the difficulties that 1976 will bring to Princeton football.

SPORTS In Princeton

Ron Beible
Three-Year Quarterback

Graduating, too, will be Greg Adams, Beible's principal reserve but very rarely used. In three years, he threw only 37 passes.

Backs: Another pair of three-year lettermen, fullback Bob Reid and flankerback Neil Chamberlin, are classmates of Beible's, leaving the Tigers with vacancies at three of the four backfield positions. Reid was the team's workhorse as ball carrier and had started every game from mid-season as a sophomore. Chamberlin's 79 receptions set a Princeton mark that will not be easily broken because so few sophomores see the degree of action necessary to reach that total in three years.

The other senior offensive back is Fran Allen, who earned a letter last fall but was not frequently used.

Kickers: When Scott Morrison's successor misses a p.a.t. this fall, as someone with inexperience may well do, it will be the first such attempt to go wide of the posts in two years. Morrison converted on all 16 attempts last year, and with a fine 11-for-15 performance in field goals, totalled 110 points during a standout career.

Not a candidate in preseason practice, Ed Kuchar returned to the squad to fill a major vacancy that developed when junior Mike Stein, 1974's barefooted kicker, opted not to return to college. Kuchar punted almost as well as his nine opponents, which says a good deal for his ability. As is the case in the search for a quarterback, chances of replacing Morrison and Kuchar without loss of efficiency are small.

Middle Guard: Another pair of three-year lettermen are among the Class of '76–Jay Dawson and Jim Williamson. Dawson was a regular for two seasons and saw a great deal of action. Williamson was heavily used in his first two years as both a defensive tackle and middle guard but missed all of 1975 after being hurt in a pre-season scrimmage.

Linebacker: Ken Frederick, who won a letter every year, will add to the number of players graduating after long experience. He often led the Tigers in number of tackles made in a game, and was number one in this respect for both the last two seasons.

Corner Backs: Rich Monoghan, a letterman for three years and Tom Palmer, who won letters in '74 and '75, have finished their careers. Monoghan's speed was also used frequently on kick returns.

Safeties: Captain Ed Sheridan, a three-year letterwinner, and Tom Lazenga, who had a fine senior year, must be replaced. Losing all four deep defensive backs will result in as much inexperience in this area for the Tigers as in the offensive backfield that must be created.

Of the 26 lettermen graduating, the biggest losses are Beible, Chamberlin, Frederick and Morrison. Casciola notes "we suffered our greatest losses at the skill positions," a truly tough rebuilding problem for a team that could not win half its games with those players on hand.

FLIPPIN STATE CHAMPION

In Group 2 Two-Mile. Princeton High School senior Royce Flippin is the NJSIAA Group 2 state champion two-miler.

At Rutgers Saturday, Flippin, easily one of the most outstanding runners ever to compete for the Blue and White, covered this distance in 9:35.5 for his first outdoor state championship. Flippin, whose goal this year was to break nine minutes, was not impressed, however, claiming his was a "lazy" performance.

Winners in all Groups at the State meet were scheduled to compete in the State Open Meet at Rutgers this Wednesday.

In the Group 2 team standings, PHS tied Somerville for third place with 14 points. Sparta finished on top with 24 and Haddon Heights was second with 19.

In addition to the two-mile, Princeton's best showing was in the 220 where Tony Strong and Ken Bullock finished second and third respectively. Strong also came in fifth in the 100-yard dash.

GIRLS END NET SEASON

With Pair of 5-0 Wins. Closing out its season with 5-0 victories over Hopewell Valley and Ewing last week, the Princeton High School girls tennis team finished with a sparkling 19-1 record.

"We have a wonderful team but the world will never know it," quipped PHS coach Carol Wimberg. Through a registration oversight, the Little Tigers were not eligible to compete in the NJSIAA tournament this year.

Those who made the season the success that it was were singles players Karen Clark, Vera Jesser and Lora Jaffin, the number one, two and three singles players, and the number one doubles pairing of Leslie Krause and Ellie Rose.

State Tennis Title to PHS Tennis Team

The Princeton High School tennis team staged its own celebration over the Memorial Day holiday by winning the NJSIAA Groups 1 & 2 state championship Saturday at the Princeton University courts. It was the first state title for the Little Tigers in five years.

In the semi-final round Saturday morning, PHS defeated Kinnelon, 3-2, and then in the afternoon, conquered Ocean City, 4-1, for the state crown.

Monday in the overall state semi-finals, PHS faced Group 3 champion Manasquan (24-1) and lost, 3-2. The undefeated number one doubles for PHS, Louis Snijders and David Bowen, won its 19th match without a loss, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, and the second doubles of Mike Loew and Andy Besser triumphed, 6-2, 6-2. Princeton's number one singles player, Dan Aronovic lost in three sets to Manasquan's undefeated Bob Weise, 7-6, 3-6, 2-6; Steve Ebersole, number two, lost 2-6, 2-6, and sophomore Allen Aronovic lost the deciding match, 4-6, 6-3, 2-6. Princeton finished with a 19-2 record.

Mission Accomplished. "What we were shooting for was the Group 2 championship," said PHS coach Joe Diefenbach. "We were working for that all season. The kids were real happy; we had talked about it all year long." For its achievement, PHS took home a big trophy.

It was also quite a debut for Diefenbach. This was his first year as coach. A long-time instructor with the Princeton Community Tennis Program, he took over the reins when Bill Humes assumed an administrative position in the school system and had to relinquish the post.

"It makes me feel good to have a state championship the first year," acknowledged Diefenbach. "Some coaches go all their lives and never win one."

Against Ocean City (20-4), Dan Aronovic won in three sets; Ebersole won, 6-2, 6-2; Allen Aronovic won, 6-0, 6-2 and Snijders and Bowen won, 6-1, 6-4. Against Kinnelon, the PHS winners were Dan Aronovic, 6-2, 6-2, Ebersole, 6-3, 6-2, and Snijders and Bowen in the deciding match, 6-3, 6-4.

PHS had won the Central Jersey Groups 1 & 2 championship on Thursday when it edged previously unheaten (18-0) Bernards, 3-2, at Rutgers University. Dan Aronovic won, 6-4, 6-3, Allen won, 6-3, 7-5, and Snijders and Bowen won, 6-0, 6-3. Ebersole won his first set, 7-5, but lost the next two. Besser and Loew were straight set victims.

On Friday, PHS polished off Ewing, 5-0, in its final regular season match, winning the Mercer County title with a 12-0 record.

Diefenbach loses four through graduation: Bowen, Besser, Ebersole, who finished with a 19-2 record, and Dan Aronovic, who ended 18-3. Allen Aronovic was 17-2 on the season.

Diefenbach summed it up when he looked back on the season and said, "You couldn't ask for anything more."

Vicki Phillips and Laurie Blum were the number two doubles. Not one is a senior.

However, Jaffin will enter Exeter next year and not return to PHS. There will be two more changes.

Throughout the state, girls tennis will now be played in the fall instead of the spring – the reasoning is to allow the boys use of the courts in the spring, the girls in the fall – and Mrs. Wimberg will not return for her fourth year as coach.

She and her husband will both leave for Iran next year, where she will continue to teach phys. ed. She will return to PHS in 1978.

PHS GIRLS ADVANCE

In Lacrosse Tournament. Victors by a 9-2 score over Chatham Township Thursday in the first round of an eight - team NJSIAA tournament that will end with the first NJSIAA girls lacrosse champion ever, fourth - seeded Princeton High School was scheduled to oppose top - seeded Collingswood this Tuesday afternoon at Collingswood.

Collingswood, a perennial champion, defeated Cherry Hill East to advance to the semi - final round with PHS. "They don't know anything about us and we don't know anything about them," said PHS coach Joyce Jones, who has scheduled a practice on Memorial Day. "All we know is that we're both supposed to be good teams. "We're looking forward to playing Collingswood."

The PHS-Collingswood winner will meet the winner of the Cherry Hill West - Moorestown Friends semi - final for the state title.

In its second game in two days, PHS ended its regular season schedule with an 8 - 5 victory here Friday over Morristown. Mina Wert paced the Little Tigers with three goals. "Mina has a good shot, she scores well, but more important she was feeding the open player," said Jones.

Mina trails high - scoring Amy Shillaber who had one goal to raise her season's output to 28. Also scoring for PHS were Lucy Baruch, Jane Bolster, Libby Hicks and Holly Light.

"I feel much better today. I'm proud of the way we played," commented Jones, who wasn't too pleased with her team's win over Chatham the day before. "Our catching and throwing was very good." However, the main difference, she felt, wes in the superior play of the PHS defense. PHS outshot the losers (7-5), 24 to 12. Princeton's record is 9-1.

Although PHS had outshot Chatham Township, 41 to 13, including three goals each by Shillaber and Wert, Janes reported she was disappointed in the way her team played. The former Trenton State standout player, who is still active in the sport, said: "You win some games yet you walk off the field knowing that you weren't playing up to the level you should have been. That was evident today."

"In the second half, we started to play better defense. I think the key to the game was our shorter passes which they couldn't intercept."

Scoring single goals for PHS were Baruch, Light and Cathy Arcaro. Janes also singled out freshman goalie, Lisa Florence for her aggressive play. "She anticipates very well," she said.

5 FROM PDS NAMED

To All-State Lacrosse Team. The Princeton Day lacrosse team, which captured its second consecutive Garden State League Title (Prep School B Division) has placed five of its players on the all-state team.

Selected from the attack were senior Doc O'Connor and junior Mark Zawadsky, from the midfield, sophomore, Rob Olssen and senior Bill Erdman, and from the defense, senior Jay Trubee.

Honorable mention went to senior goalie Rich Olssen, defenseman John Segal and midfielder Tom Moore. Steve Judge, an all-state selection last year who was forced to sit out most of the season because of an injury, was given honorary all-state status this year.

In addition to his all-state selection Rob Olsson was nominated as a high school all-American by the various coaches in the league. His name will be forwarded to the state level for further consideration.

Coach Bob Krueger, who completed a highly successful first year guiding the Panthers to a 13-2 mark plus the championship, admits that next season will be much more of a challenge.

Although he has a fine nucleus of veteran players returning in Olssen, Haraldson, Zawadsky, Tim Brush and Peter Buck, he will lose several talented seniors, including the whole first-string defense. Krueger is looking to the jayvee team to fill some of the gaps left by graduation. "They had a good season and should be able to provide us with some good defensemen and a good goalie," he commented.

Struggling PHS Baseball Team (4-13) Feels Foundation Now Exists for Good '77 Season

It wasn't the best of seasons – four wins in 17 games – but it ended on the upswing last week for the Princeton High School baseball team, which shaded Steinert, 3-2, in its final game. PHS won two of its last three.

"It was good for the older kids – they left on a nice note – and it was really fine for the younger boys, the ones we've been trying to give a lot of experience and work with," commented PHS coach Jim O'Neill. The win over Steinert was the second over the Spartans this year and it marked the first time an O'Neill-coached team has swept a series with one team.

This was O'Neill's second lean season but it looks as if the lean years are over. He has seven sophomores coming up, all with varsity experience, including three pitchers, and two juniors. "We have more players coming back with varsity experience than ever before," said O'Neill, "and I'm confident next year will be one of the best years Princeton High will have in a long, long time. There should be a vast improvement."

Sophomore Carl Nazzaro pitched a "helluva" game, in O'Neill's words, against Steinert, earning his first win of the season against one loss. After holding the Spartans hitless for 5 and one-third innings, he finished with a three-hitter, striking out six. Only one of Steinert's two runs was earned.

PHS scored two in the second after Al Kandell led off with a triple. Dave Seagers followed with a dribble infield hit, not enough to score Kandell, but the throw to first was wild and Kandell scored. With one down, Jim LaPlaca then tripled home Seagers.

Dave Miller walked, stole second and third and then came home on an error by the Steinert catcher to score Princeton's other run in the sixth. Keith Phox, Scott Thompson and Seagers each had two hits for PHS, while Mike Boonin had the team's ninth safety.

Lose 12-8 to WW. PHS failed to make it three in a row when it lost a 12-8 game to powerful West Windsor, which won its sixteenth in 24 outings. The Pirates scored five in the first, including a three-run homer by catcher Ed Schraeder and added a pair in the second, fifth and sixth innings. Schraeder and shortstop Dave Duncan collected four hits apiece and drove in six runs.

After scoring two in the fourth, PHS pulled to within two, 10-8, with a six-run outburst in the fifth. LaPlaca singled, Tom Breithaupt walked, Kandell singled and Phox walked for the first run.. Thompson and Seagers each followed with two-run singles. LaPlaca, up for the second time, singled home Princeton's sixth run.

Rick Malacrea (5-2) got the win; Alex Robertson (2-2) took the loss.

Six Graduate. Seniors on the squad include co-captains Paul Soderman and Boonin, designated hitter LaPlaca, Seagers, Alex Robertson and Mark Lovering.

Thompson, the leading hitter on last year's team, ended with the same honor again, batting .280. He hit .500 in the last four games. Off to a poor 0-for-9 start, Boonin settled down to become a steady hitter, finishing at .253. He hit the ball at a .320 clip since the Hun game in mid-season.

Phox, who with Nazarro and Kandell, will be the starting three pitchers next year, led the team in homers with two. His on-base batting average was almost .500.

Robertson (2-2), Nazzaro (1-1) and Phox (1-4) were the only pitchers to record a win. Boonin was 0-3, Kandell 0-2, and John Boccanfuso 0-1. Sophomores returning include Kandell, Phox, Dave Miller, John Miller, Jamie Robertson, John Rosenthal and Nazzaro. Boccanfuso and Thompson are juniors.

New League Next Year. In addition to a fine collection of young talent returning, O'Neill sees another advantage starting next year. That is when the new Colonial League is scheduled to begin.

It will put PHS against schools its own size, such as Lawrence, Hightstown, Hopewell Valley, St. Anthony and West Windsor. The Little Tigers will continue to play single games against long-time traditional opponents – Ewing, Steinert, Hamilton and Trenton – which are larger schools and which O'Neill believes are rivalries worth preserving. But they will no longer be league opponents.

Summing up, the personable O'Neill admitted that, yes, he was disappointed at only winning four (PHS won only three the year before) "but I can't help but feel we finished up on a good note. We got out of this business of feeling we can't win, or if we fell behind that we couldn't come from behind and win. We were fortunate to get a lot of playing time in for a lot of kids -- and it will pay off."

The cry of 'Wait 'til next year' will have some meaning for the Little Tigers.

PHS AWARDS SHARED

By Boonin and Robertson. Co-captain Mike Boonin was named recipient of the most valuable player award and Alex Robertson received the sportsmanship award at the end of the Princeton High School baseball season last week. Both are seniors.

Boonin began the season as the team's only returning pitcher with any experience. But at his own suggestion, he switched to a relief role where he told coach Jim O'Neill he thought he would be more effective. He ended the season as a starting outfielder and the second leading hitter on the team.

"Mike came on strong; he clearly deserved the award," said O'Neill. "He's the kind of player who seemed to be able to demonstrate know-how and carry it through. When you told him to lay down a bunt, you knew he could do it. He learned from every year."

"Nobody," commented O'Neill, "improved as much as Robertson did in the last two years. He improved 150 percent."

Always an outfielder, Robertson agreed when O'Neill approached him this season and asked him to convert to a pitcher to take advantage of his strong arm.

How well did he do? "On a 4-13 team, he has half our wins," O'Neill pointed out. "He's come a long way."

ENDING IS SWEET

For Princeton Day Nine. The Princeton Day baseball team had its ups and downs all season, and fortunately it ended matters on an up note last Wednesday with a come-from-behind victory over a strong Trenton High School team.

The triumph enabled the Panthers to finish the season right on the .500 mark at 8-8. The day before they had dropped a 4-2 decision to Allentown.

Steve Baicker was the hero in the win over Trenton, slugging a double in the sixth inning to drive in the winning run. The Panthers had taken an early 1-0 lead with a run in the first inning, but the Tornadoes scored three times in the fourth, all on double steals. They stole seven bases in all.

PDS added a single run in the fifth, before the two-run rally that won it in the sixth. Mike Walters pitched all the way, giving up just four hits, and also ended smack on the .500 mark with a 5-5 record.

Allentown's Craig Walker pitched and batted his team to victory in Tuesday's contest. On the mound he limited the Blue and White to just four hits, all singles, and at the plate he slammed a two-run homer in the first inning.

The winners scored three times in the first, and the Panthers never caught up. Dave Barondess took the loss, and wound up with a 2-3 mark.

GOLF CLINICS PLANNED

For County Residents. The Mercer County Park Commission will hold free golf clinics in June.

Clinics for adults will be held at the Princeton Country Club on Tuesday, June 8, through Friday, June 11, from 7 to 8 p.m.

Clinics for teenagers will be held at the Mountain View Golf Course from Monday, June 21, through Thursday, June 24, from 1 to 2.

The Commission also announced that there will be free play days for residents of Hamilton Township and Pennington Borough on Monday, July 12; for residents of Trenton on Tuesday, July 13; for residents of Ewing Township, Hopewell Borough and Township, East and West Windsor on Monday, July 19; and for Princeton Borough and Township, Washington Township, Hightstown and Lawrence Township on Tuesday, July 20.

PHS Alumnus Golf Victor

Rich Bassett, who learned his golf as a Princetoo resident, won the Dodge Open on the Rockaway River course at Denville last week, shooting a six-under-par 282. He was two strokes ahead of his nearest competitor, with the prize a $7,000 Dodge Charger. It was the third car he has won in the tournament in the past three years.

Bassett, a member of the Class of 1959 at Princeton High School, attended Duke University, where he was no. 2 man on the golf team. Now living in Miami, he is married to a Princeton girl and has been playing golf professionally for the past decade, several of these years on tour.

His father, T. Robert Bassett, was for a number of years headmaster of the Columbus Boychoir School and his mother was a member of the faculty there.

PHS Baseball Loses A Top Performer

Nothing pleases a coach more than to see the steady development of a player from an awkward beginner to polished performer.

There was such a performer on the Princeton High School baseball team this year, but the name never appeared in the lineup.

Debra "Debbie" Firstenberg was scorekeeper for the PHS team the past three years. She was a reporter's delight. She always had the first names of the opposition, she could relate, play-by-play, the big-inning rally and by the end she could not only tell you who was pitching and his record, but how well his curve ball was working. She revelled in the team's wins and suffered in its defeats.

PHS coach Jim O'Neill recalled that he was coaching the PHS jayvee team at the time, when he asked Debbie, "Why don't you come out and become a scorekeeper?" Debbie replied she didn't know a thing about baseball, but she soon learned. She got a rule book, O'Neill said, and learned the rules; she checked about scoring. "When she asked a question she would not let you off the hook until she got an answer. She's a great one."

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Firstenberg — her dad is financial vice-president of Princeton University — Debbie is going to enter Princeton University in the fall. She would like to become a scorekeeper for the Tigers and she confided that she thinks she has a good chance, "because I have inside connections." If she succeeds, the University team will have one crackerjack scorekeeper.

As for followers of the Little Tigers' progress, that, too, is in good hands. Thorough as ever, Debbie has groomed two girls to succeed her.

STICKMEN WIN FINALE

Edge Moorestown, 7-6. Ahead 4-2 at the half, the Princeton High School lacrosse team built its lead to 7-4 and then held on to defeat Moorestown last week in its final game of the season, 7-6.

The game wasn't that well played, commented PHS coach Bill Cirullo, but he and his Little Tigers were happy to take it. The win was Princeton's third in its last four games and the final spurt salvaged a season that ended 6-7. Four of those victories, including the win over Moorestown, were one-goal wins.

"That's the difference between this year's club and last year's," said Cirullo. "Last year we were losing those one-goal games." PHS finished with a 4-9 record last spring.

The Little Tigers' leading scorer all year, Morgan Mohrman led the way again in the finale, scoring three goals and adding an assist. The remainder of the PHS scoring was spread out. Morgan, a junior, had a season total of 26 goals and 18 assists.

As for next year, the outlook is bright, indeed "We have a relatively young club. In fact, I'm looking forward to next year right now," said the irrepressible Cirullo. He loses only five starting seniors: Stuart Brown, second in scoring to Mohrman; two fine defensemen in Nate Harris and Craig Rendall, Steve Mapes, and Dan Schulman who joined the team for the first time as a senior. Schulman scored in the final against Moorestown.

Senior Bill Cobb left the team after the first game and senior Eric Ziolkowski, a first-year player like Schulman, left late in the season for personal reasons. "I give these guys a lot of credit," said Cirullo, commenting on seniors like Schulman and Ziolkowski who were both football players but had never played lacrosse before. "They helped us out a lot."

For next year, Cirullo will have an all senior attack "which should be pretty strong," and a good group of sophomores coming up "who should help stabilize the midfield."

Also coming back is goalie Robert Willis who was credited with 192 saves this season. "He had to play a lot of defense; he stopped a lot," said Cirullo.

"With a little more punch we could have had a .500 season for sure," Cirullo concluded. It isn't likely that that .500 season will slip away again next spring.

FINAL 18-6 VICTORY

For Girls Softball Team. The Princeton High School girls softball team, which began its season under new coach Fred Carmen with a lopsided win, ended the same way, upsetting Hightstown last week in its final game, 18-6.

Earlier, playing three games in three days, PHS dropped a 7-5 decision to Hopewell Valley and lost, 14-4, to Ewing. The Little Tigers ended with a 7-8 overall record – an improvement over last year's 4-8 log. They were 5-5 in the Mercer County League and 1-1 in NJSIAA competition.

Against Hightstown, PHS scored five in the first and then added 11 more in the second to take the fight out of the home-team Rams. Hightstown had entered the game with a 10-2 record.

Among the 13 hits pounded out by Princeton were triples by Peggy Wood and Marylynn Pesce. Wood had three hits and drove in six runs, while Pesce sent four runs across the plate. Carol Ann Mazzola and Wood added doubles in the PHS attack.

"We didn't expect to beat them" said PHS player Barbie Miller. "It was an upset; they always have beaten us." Debbie Breithaupt, the Little Tigers' mainstay on the mound all season, got the win.

Against Hopewell, Cindy Burrough was the losing pitcher, Breithaupt relieving in the final inning. For PHS, Cathy Hommel had three hits, including a double, and Wood was 3-for-4. Ewing evened its record at 6-6 at Princeton's expense. The Blue Devils scored seven runs in the first, added three in the second and two more in the third to put the game out of reach in a hurry.

Outhit 13 to 5, PHS had scored three of its four runs in the first inning to take a short-lived lead. Wood, Mazzola, Judy Grisham and Lisa Eldon were the leading hitters.

DOUBLE TROUBLE: Mina Wert (left) and Amy Shillaber seem mild enough here, but they have been anything but nice to the opposition. The leading two scorers on the PHS girls lacrosse team, they each made three goals in the Little Tigers NJSIAA 9-2 victory over Chatham Township last week.
